PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION.

THESE Volumes contain all the information I have been able to collect concerning the British Enactments in force in the Native States in India.¹

2. The term "British Enactments," as used in these volumes, includes—

- (I) the Enactments made by the British Legislature in exercise of the general jurisdiction which it possesses over its subjects and servants in all Native States, and
- (II) the Enactments made by or under the authority of the British Indian Executive Government in exercise of the special jurisdiction which it has acquired, usually over all persons, in certain Native States or places therein.

3. ²The distinction between these two classes of Enactments has been observed in classifying the British Enactments in force in the Native States dealt with in these volumes, the Enactments in force in each local area having been placed under separate heads according as they belong to one or other of these classes. Enactments which purport to be solely made under the authority of the Legislature, or which appear to be limited to the classes of persons with which the Legislature can deal, have been arranged under one head and styled "British-Indian Enactments"; whilst Enactments which purport to be made, in whole or in part, under the special authority of the Executive Government above described, or which do not appear to be limited to the classes of persons with which the Legislature can deal, have been arranged under a different head, having as its title the name of the particular place for which the Enactments have been made with the word "British" prefixed. Broadly speaking, the "British-Indian Enactments" are personal laws applicable only to British subjects or servants, whilst the other Enactments are territorial laws applicable to all persons in the particular places to which they respectively refer.

² There are certain exceptions to the general rules laid down in this paragraph, which are noticed in the body of the Lists.

4. The minor classification under each of these heads is identical, the Enactments being arranged, as far as possible, in separate lists, as they are of the nature of—

- (1) Principal Enactments, that is, Enactments made under the immediate authority of the Legislature or the Executive Government, consisting of—

A.—Enactments of the Legislature—

- (a) Statutes,
- (b) Acts of the Governor-General in Council¹;

B.—Enactments of the Executive Government—

- (a) Enactments of the British-Indian Legislatures applied,
 - (b) Special Laws; or
- (2) Subordinate Enactments, that is, Enactments (Rules and Orders) made under authority conferred in this behalf by Principal Enactments.

5. "Special Laws" are new laws made by the Executive Government for places in which it has acquired special jurisdiction, while "Enactments of the British-Indian Legislatures applied" are, as their title indicates, existing British-Indian Enactments which have, by order of the Executive Government, been adopted, usually with certain modifications, as laws in such places. Though there is no material distinction between these two kinds of Enactments, it has been found convenient to arrange them in separate groups in these volumes.

6. A general classification of the British Enactments which may be made for the Native States in India, and a detailed classification of the various British Enactments actually in force in the Native States dealt with in each volume, which have been prepared in accordance with the above remarks, will be found in Statements Nos. I and II, prefixed to these volumes (pages xi and xii).

7. The Enactments which the various Native States may have made for their respective territories are beyond the scope of this work.

8. For the convenience of local officers, each volume contains (see Part I) the British Enactments in force generally in all Native States in India, as well as the Enactments in force locally in the particular Native States with which it deals.

9. Numerous references to Aitchison's Treaties have been inserted, which will, it is hoped, add to the usefulness of these Lists. The revised edition of 1876 is the one referred to.

10. A short alphabetical index of names of places has been appended for convenience of reference.

11. In compiling the volumes—

(a) Rules and Orders of a temporary nature or conferring powers on persons by name have, as a rule, been omitted; and

(b) Special Laws and Subordinate Enactments, which are not to be found in the Codes published by the Legislative Department, have, as a rule, been set out in extenso.

12. Mr. G. R. Ridge of the Legislative Department Office has assisted me in the preparation of these Lists, and Mr. F. G.

Wigley, the Officiating Under Secretary, has kindly undertaken to supervise the passing of the final proof through the Press and the insertion of such Enactments as may be issued after this date.

13. Lastly, it must be stated that these volumes are not authoritative, and that the Government of India is in no way responsible for their contents. They have been compiled by me from the Official Gazettes, supplemented by local information obtained through the Foreign Department. Though I have made them as complete and accurate as was possible, having regard to the materials at my disposal and the limited time which I have been at liberty to devote to the work, I am fully conscious of their many defects. At the same time I hope that notwithstanding their imperfections, the volumes will be found to be of some practical value to Political Officers and others desirous of obtaining information concerning the British Enactments in force in the Native States in India.

J. M. MACPHERSON.

SIMLA;

The 27th October 1890.

In his recent valuable work, "The Protected Native States of India," Mr. Lee-Warner states (see page 366), that if the reader "refers to the official Gazettes of the Indian Government he will find many scores of pages devoted annually to the judicial notifications published by the political offices of the Empire. The law relating to the Native States fills thousands of pages." The object of the work now being brought to completion has been to save the labour and trouble involved in referring to the official Gazettes for these Notifications by supplying information in a classified form as to their contents. Though the work only professes to contain lists of the Notifications in question, it will be found on examination that, except in the case of the two first volumes, which do not, as a rule, reproduce the subordinate Enactments, the whole of each Notification referred to in these volumes is set out in extenso either in the last column of the Lists or in the appendices, so that a reference to the Gazettes, even for the purpose of ascertaining the exact words of a Notification, has been rendered unnecessary. Indeed, if used in conjunction with the "Codes" published by the Legislative Department, which contain the Statutes, Acts, and Regulations mentioned in the Lists, these volumes ought to form a fairly complete handbook to the British Enactments now in force in the Native States of India.

The subject of the relations between the British Government and the Native States of India has of late been brought before the public not only in Mr. Lee-Warner's work above mentioned, but also in Mr. Tupper's no less valuable work, "Our Indian Protectorate." In both these volumes these relations have been treated of chiefly from a politico-historical point of view. In his earlier work, entitled "A Collection of Treaties, Engagements, and Sanads relating to India and neighbouring countries," of which a revised edition has recently been published, Sir Charles Aitchison dealt very fully and comprehensively with the same subject, mainly from the standpoint of our contractual relations towards these States. In these and the previous volumes of this work an attempt has been made to approach this subject from what may be described as its legal or jurisdictional aspect, the object being to show the extent to which British-made law applies to these Native States, and, though these volumes are practically little more than compilations of information which is available to any one who chooses to study the Gazettes, they will perhaps help to throw light on what has hitherto been a somewhat confusing branch of the subject.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION.

IN preparing for publication the second edition of this work one important alteration has been introduced which, it is hoped, will render it more useful for purposes of reference. In the first edition the Enactments were merely summarized and included in the lists, with the exception of certain special ones, which were reproduced in extenso in Appendices: in the present edition, however, all Enactments which have been issued by the Government of India have been reproduced in extenso, except in so far as they are to be found in the volumes of General Acts of the Governor-General in Council, or in one of the Provincial Codes. In such cases full references are given: and the chronological lists which formed the basis of the first edition are only retained in a simplified form to serve the purposes of a table or index. In its present form it is hoped that the work may be regarded as a not inadequate supplement to the General Acts of the Governor-General in Council and the Provincial Codes.

2. A general nominal index has been added at the end of the sixth Volume (the Western Indian Volume) for facility of reference.

3. Mr. Macpherson, the Secretary to the Government of India in the Legislative Department, who compiled the first edition, has kindly permitted me to consult him in matters regarding the general scheme of the work, and I have to express my obligations to him for his advice. I have also had the assistance of Mr. Ridge of the Legislative Department Office, who has been most useful in helping to prepare the volumes for Press.

PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION.

IN this, the third, edition of "British Enactments in force in Native States," the system of arrangement has been altered from that adopted by Mr. (now Sir John) Macpherson in the first edition. States in relation with the Government of India, with the Administered Areas situated in them, have been grouped (Volumes I-III) apart from those in relation with Local Governments (Volume IV), while one Volume (V) is devoted to Railways wherever situated. Again orders under Acts applied and under Local Laws have been separated from the rest of the enactments, and form Volumes II and III in the case of the first group of States, and Part II of Volume IV in the case of the second group, and Part II of Volume V in the case of railways. Lastly, for convenience of reference, orders relating to Courts have been entered under a separate sub-head in each chapter in Volumes I, IV, Part I, and V, Part I. In the Appendices have been collected all orders to which there are constant references in the body of the work, or which it is convenient to group together for purposes of comparison, such as orders relating to the appointment of Justices of the Peace, of Marriage Registrars, and of Registrars of Births and Deaths.

Each Volume states the law as in force on the 19th April 1913.

The States in the political control of the Chief Commissioner of Assam are :—

The Chiefs (Seims) of the Khasi States enjoy only limited powers. Their jurisdiction is confined to Civil suits * and minor criminal cases in which their own Khasi subjects alone are concerned, all other suits and cases being referred to the Political Agent (who is Deputy Commissioner of the Khasi and Jaintia Hills District) for adjudication. Their administrative powers are also subject to various restrictions.

In the Manipur State both civil and criminal jurisdiction over British subjects vests in the Political Agent. But the Vice-President of the Durbar, who is a British Officer lent to the State, has been invested with the powers of a Magistrate of the first class in respect to British subjects who are natives of the Naga, Chin or Lushai Hills, and he is also empowered to dispose of all civil suits in which such persons are concerned. Appeals lie from the Vice-President's decisions to the Political Agent, who also disposes of all cases

* The Seims of States Nos. 6, 9, 12, 14, 21 and 24 have agreed that suits for divorce and other matrimonial cases where the parties are Native Christians shall be decided by the Political Agent. The Seims of States Nos. 7, 8, 10, 15, 17, 19, 20, 22, 23 and 25 have agreed to the disposal of such matters by the Political Agent jointly with the Seim.

for which the Vice-President's magisterial powers are inadequate, subject to confirmation by the Chief Commissioner of sentences of death, or of transportation or imprisonment exceeding seven years. A similar arrangement obtains in the case of the Hill tribes dependent on the Manipur State, except that no appeals lie in civil cases.

The only Administered Area in these States is the British Reserve in Manipur, which consists of the head-quarters of the Agency at Imphal and a small sanitarium at Kanjupkhul. In certain lands adjoining Shillong the Seim of Myllem has ceded the jurisdiction necessary for Municipal administration only.

The British Reserve is defined by the following notification :—

*No. 533-I.B., dated the 12th March 1909. * ¹

III. The British Reserve, Manipur, shall consist of—

(a) All lands comprised within the following boundaries :—

Commencing from Cantonment boundary pillar No. 1, which is on the left bank of the Nag Nullah near the north-west corner of the Pat the line runs due west to the Nag Nullah, then down the Nullah to its junction with the Nambol river, then down the Nambol river to reserve pillar No. 1, which is placed on the left bank close to where a large drain, or cut, falls into the river; then up this drain, or cut, which for the whole distance skirts the compounds of the Manipur State Jail, State Military Police Hospital and State Civil Police lines to the main road to Thobal, where pillar No. 2 is placed; then along this road in the direction of Thobal to pillar No. 3 on the right bank of the Imphal river at the point where the road first meets it; then up the river to the bridge which crosses the road forming the southerly boundary of the Pat. Then along the Cantonment boundary to Cantonment boundary pillar No. 6, then eastward along the northern side of the road for 700 feet to pillar No. 5. Then northwards to pillar No. 6, then by pillars 7, 8, 9 and 10, including the Muhammadan burial ground to the Imphal river, thence down the river to Cantonment boundary pillar No. 7 situated on the left bank and close to the Minithong bridge near the north-east corner of the Pat.

From pillar No. 7 the boundary crosses the river Imphal a second time, and passes alongside of the Minithong bridge running almost due west to pillar No. 8.

The line then runs along the east side of the river bund, thus including it (the bund) in cantonments, and more or less follows the right bank of the river up to pillar No. 17.

The boundary here takes an easterly direction, and still closely follows the right bank of the Imphal river.

Then again the line runs in a northerly direction to pillar No. 20.

The boundary here runs west, following an old existing bund on its south side and about 50 feet from it.

Then the line follows the bund, running west and crosses the Nag Nullah to pillar No. 22, which is situated about 140 feet from the right bank of the Nullah.

Here the line continues its westerly direction and crosses the Nichuguard-Manipur cart-road to pillar No. 23, which is about 300 feet east of the 750 yards firing platform.

The boundary now runs nearly due north, and also forms the east lateral limits of the rifle range running about 300 feet east of the central line of existing range road to pillar No. 24, which is situated on the Chingmairong hill.

The boundary now forms the north limit of the rifle range, the line running about 380 feet behind the targets to pillar No. 25.

Here the boundary runs due south, forming the western limit of the rifle range, to pillar No. 26, situated nearly due west of the 800 yards firing platform and 300 feet from its centre.

The boundary then crosses the Thamaibund road to pillar No. 27, which is situated 80 feet east of the centre of the road.

The Cantonment boundary line runs due south to pillar No. 28, which is situated about 75 feet from the centre of the road.

The line still continues its southerly course to pillar No. 29 which is situated about 75 feet from the centre of the Thamaibund road and north-west of pillar No. 1.

From pillar No. 29 the line running in a south-easterly direction meets pillar No. 1 and

CHAPTER III.

BIHAR AND ORISSA.

The States in the political control of the Government of Bihar and Orissa are:—

Agency.	States.
Orissa Feudatory States.	Athgarh.	Khandpara.
	Athmallik.	Mayurbhanj.
	Baramba.	Nayagarh.
	Boad.	Nilgiri.
	Bonai. ²	Pal Lahara.
	Daspalla.	Patna. ¹
	Dhenkanal.	Ranpur.
	Gangpur. ²	Rehrakhol. ¹
	Hindol.	Sonpur. ¹
	Karond ¹ (Kalahandi).	Talcher.
	Keonjhar.	Tigiria.
Chota Nagpur.	Kharsawan.	Seraikela.

The Chiefs of Bamra, Kalahandi, Patna, Rehrakhol and Sonpur have by the terms of their *sanads*³ full jurisdiction "in all matters whether criminal, civil or revenue" subject to the proviso that sentences of death require the confirmation of the Commissioner of Orissa or such other officer as shall be nominated by the British Government; but the Political authorities possess⁴ the usual criminal jurisdiction in respect of British subjects, Europeans and Americans, and Government servants.

The *sanads*⁵ of the other Chiefs, except Bonai, Gangpur, Kharsawan and Seraikela, reserve for the Courts of the Political authorities the jurisdiction in heinous offences and in all cases in which Europeans are concerned. Further, the sentences which Chiefs, unless specially empowered, may pass in cases within their jurisdiction are restricted, respectively, to two years' imprisonment, one thousand rupees fine, and thirty stripes, and all orders passed by them are subject to revision by the Commissioner of Orissa.

¹ Transferred from the Political control of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces in 1905, the charge of authority in general respects being provided for by notification No. 3447-I.B., dated the 17th August 1906. Printed infra, p. 32.

² Transferred from the Chota Nagpur Agency in 1905.

³ Treaties, 4th Ed., Vol. I, pages 360—365.

⁴ This is part of the prerogative of the Paramount Power and is universal in Native States; but provision has not been made for its exercise except as regards European British subjects.

⁵ Treaties, 4th Ed., Vol. I, pages 319—336.

In Bonai, Gangpur, Kharsawan and Seraikela the residuary jurisdiction exercised by the Political authorities is still wider, as the sentences which the Chiefs may pass are limited¹ to imprisonment up to two years and fines up to Rs. 50, or up to five years and Rs. 200, respectively, subject to confirmation by the Commissioner of Orissa, who has powers of revision in all cases.

There are no Administered Areas in these States. The various railways are included in the Eastern Division of railways in the classification in Volume V.

¹ The Chief of Gangpur has been invested (in 1909) with the powers of a Sessions Judge, subject to confirmation of sentences of death by the Commissioner of Orissa.

In all these States the Political authorities concerned possess the jurisdiction always vested in the Paramount Power in criminal matters relating to British subjects, Europeans and Americans, and Government servants.¹ But they possess further residuary jurisdiction in the different States as shown in the following account:—²

In the Palanpur, Mahi Kantha and Kathiawar Agencies the class division of States, reproduced in the above lists, indicates the jurisdiction possessed by the Courts of the States, thus:—

Class.	PALANPUR AND KATHIAWAR AGENCIES.		MAHI KANTHA AGENCY.

¹ In the Kaira and Khairpur Agencies provision has been made for the exercise of this jurisdiction only in the case of European British subjects.

² In the Malia state in Kathiawar jurisdiction over the Miana tribe also vests entirely in the political authorities—see Treaties, 4th Ed., Vol. VI, p. 109.

Class.	PALANPUR AND KATHIAWAR AGENCIES.		MAHI KANTHA AGENCY.

(a) From States of the 3rd class.—Cases of offences punishable under section 302, 303, 304, 307 and 396.

(b) From States of the 4th and 5th classes.—Cases of offences punishable under section 194, 195, 225, 302—304, 307, 312—316, 363—373, 376, 392, 395—402 and 412.

as also cases in which, though the offence is ordinarily within the power of the State Courts a sentence within their powers would be inadequate—(Circular 2 of 1874—Kathiawar Directory, Part II, p. 686).

² The cases triable by Courts of States of the 6th and 7th classes are restricted to those offences punishable under the following sections of the Indian Penal Code:—

(i) States of the 6th class.—Sections 277, 290, 323, 324, 341, 352, 358, 379, 380, 403 and 426.

(ii) States of the 7th class.—Sections 277, 290, 352, 358 and 379 (Ibid).

In the other Agencies—the States of Cutch, Rajpipla, Kolhapur, Cambay and Khairpur are on the same footing as 1st class States in Kathiawar, that is to say, the only¹ restriction on the jurisdiction of the State Courts, is that the sanction of the Political Agent is required to the trial of British subjects for capital offences.

The position of—

Chota Udaipur, Bariya, Lunavada, Balasinor and Sunth (Rewa Kantha).

Jamkhandi, Kurandvad (Senior and Junior), Miraj (Senior and Junior), Mudhol, Ramdurg, and Sangli (Southern Maratha Country).

Savanur² (Dharwar),

Janjira (Kolaba),

Bansda, Dharampur and Sachin (Surat), and Jawhar (Thana), is similar to that of 2nd class States in Kathiawar, the only² restriction on the jurisdiction of the State Courts being that the sanction of the Political Agent is necessary to the trial of persons other than subjects of the State for capital offences.

In the Satara Jagirs, viz.,

Akalkot (Sholapur).

Aundh and Phaltan (Satara).

Bhor (Poona), and

Jath, including Daphlapur (Bijapur)

capital and other serious offences are tried by the Political Agent, subject to confirmation by the Governor of Bombay in Council of sentences of death or transportation for life.³

The Savantvadi State was under British management from 1838 to 1900, when the present Chief succeeded. He has not yet been entrusted with ruling powers, and the administration of the State is carried on in his name by the Political Agent.

² Sentences of death passed by the Courts of the Savanur State require to be confirmed by the Governor of Bombay in Council.

³ See notification No. 3264-I. A., dated the 26th August 1897. Printed infra, p. 55.

In the remaining jurisdictional States the arrangements are as follows :—

² Is at present under Agency management.

Nasik	Sargana	Nil	Restricted to petty cases of assault, theft and adultery.	The Political Agent and his Assistant exercise the powers of a Sessions Judge and an Assistant Sessions Judge, respectively.
Surat	Dangs Estates	Nil	Ditto	The Dangs Dewan, who is an Agency official, has powers of a 2nd class Magistrate and jurisdiction in civil suits of the value of Rs. 50. The Divisional Forest Officer, Surat, as ex-officio Assistant Political Agent, has powers of a 1st class Magistrate and disposes of all civil suits not triable by the Dewan. The Political Agent exercises all higher criminal jurisdiction.

In the non-jurisdictional estates, of which there are 154 in the Palanpur Agency, 26 (excluding sub-villages) in the Mahi Kantha, 41 in the Rewa Kantha and 111 in Kathiawar, jurisdiction vests entirely in the British Government, represented by the Political authorities. The estates are grouped (often along with minor jurisdictional States) into circles (Thanas), in the charge of Thanadars as Sub-divisional Officers under the orders of the Political Agent and his Assistant or Deputy Assistant.

The Administered Areas are :—

Deesa Cantonment in Palanpur.

Sadra Bazar in the Mahi Kantha.

Rajkot Civil Station and Cantonment. The Head Quarters of the Kathiawar Agency.

Salt Regulations,
1882.

No. 4706, dated the 19th July 1882.—It is hereby notified, by orders of the Governor in Council, that all salt not covered by a permit which shall be carried across the Frontier Line herein after described and all salt spontaneously produced within and eastward of the said line which shall be removed without due permission will from the date of this notice be contraband salt as defined in Bombay Act VII of 1873, and all persons concerned in passing, removing or transporting such salt, or accepting or retaining such salt, and all such salt, and all vessels, animals and conveyances used or intended to be used in transporting it, and all goods, packages and coverings in or among which it may be placed will be liable to the penalties set forth in Part VI of the said Act.

Definition of the Salt Frontier Line north of the frontier of Jhinjura in Kathiawar.

From the Northern Extremity of the Frontier Preventive Line as defined by¹ notification No. 44 of 1875 of the Political Agent in Kathiawar the line will follow a northerly course parallel with the Coast of the Runn and at a distance of three miles therefrom until it arrives opposite the boundary between Mowsari, a Wao village under the Palanpur Political Superintendency and Boyetra under Jodhpur in Rajputana.

²*Rules of procedure.*

I. For the due protection of the Salt Revenue the Chiefs should be required to admit posts of offices of the Salt Department into such villages and places as the Political Superintendent may appoint at the instance of the Collector of Salt Revenue, and to assist the Salt officers to find accommodation in such villages and places in every reasonable way.

II. The officers of the Salt Department should be permitted to follow and apprehend smugglers, and to seize suspected salt, and carriages, animals and trappings used in its conveyance, and the contents of any package in which it may be concealed. And it shall be the duty of the officers making such apprehension and seizures to take the prisoner or prisoners and property forthwith to the Inspector to whom they are immediately subordinate, who after such preliminary inquiry as may be necessary (to be in all cases completed within 24 hours) shall forward any prisoner or prisoners who may appear from the information obtained to have committed any offence punishable under this notification to the proper Court and shall release any prisoner or prisoners, the evidence or reasonable ground of suspicion against whom appears insufficient to justify his or their transmission to a Court, submitting a report of the case for the orders of their immediate superior. Any person or persons who may have been released from arrest under this rule by Inspectors of the Salt Department shall be liable to re-arrest and trial on application being made to the Political Superintendent by the Assistant Collector of Salt Revenue in charge of the Preventive Line.

III. It shall be the duty of the States concerned to cause their officers to take part in the pursuit and seizure of smugglers, etc., and generally to assist the officers of the Salt Department. In the case of any seizure made by the Chief's officers independently of the officers of the Salt Department notice should be given to the head local officer of the Salt Department, who will then arrange to take possession of the salt and property seized and pass a receipt therefor. Opportunity should also be given him for such inquiry as may be necessary to ascertain whether the property seized is liable to confiscation.

IV. The Salt Department should prosecute all persons accused of smuggling before the Local Court of the Chief or Superintendency. An appeal to the Political Superintendent, if he has jurisdiction over the Local Court, against the decision of the Court, whatever it may be, will be open both to the prosecutor and to the accused.

V. The Patel or Headman of every village under the Superintendency in which formations of natural salt may take place shall report to the nearest officer of the Salt Department the existence of such formations within three days from the time he may become aware of it. If any person bound to report under this Rule shall wilfully omit to do so he shall for every such offence be liable to fine not exceeding (500) five hundred rupees.

Pleaders in the Civil Courts of the Agency.

1. A Pleader or Vakil shall not be allowed to act in any suit or proceeding until he has obtained from the party and filed in the Court a power-of-attorney (Vakilatnama) according to the form contained in Appendix A appointing him Pleader in the cause.

2. If a party engages a Pleader to act in his behalf, he shall present him with one rupee as a retaining fee, for which the Pleader shall grant him a written acknowledgment specifying the date of payment, and if the said retaining fee be not offered, the Pleader shall demand it, and abstain from all proceeding until it be delivered.

3. If after receiving the retaining fee a Pleader shall engage with or act for the other party or refuse or omit to act on behalf of his client he may be punished by a fine not exceeding Rs. 400 (four hundred), or if the matter in litigation be less than Rs. 250, then not exceeding twice the amount of the sum in dispute between the parties.

4. No order shall be passed under this rule except after an investigation in writing nor by officers of lower degree than Assistant Political Agents, but the subordinate officers shall forward their proceedings to the Assistant Political Agent who shall pass orders subject to appeal to the Political Agent's Court.

5. Where the circumstances are of an aggravated nature the Political Agent will suspend the Pleader or withdraw his Sanad. No punishment inflicted under these rules shall protect Pleaders from Civil or Criminal prosecution.

6. It shall be incumbent on a Pleader at the time of receiving from his clients any accounts, writings, or documents to give written receipts for them and to restore them when required under penalty of fine not exceeding Rs. 100 to be awarded by the officers described in Rule 4. If the circumstances are of an aggravated nature the Political Agent will suspend the Pleader or withdraw his Sanad.

7. Each Pleader employed in prosecuting or defending an original suit or a regular or special appeal shall be entitled to a percentage on the amount sued for, according to the rates specified in the Appendix B, as a remuneration for his trouble in acting on behalf of his client until the decree in the suit is passed and thereafter until such decree is fulfilled.

8. If an acknowledgment of the demand is entered or a suit or appeal withdrawn without being brought to trial, the Pleader shall be entitled to only one-quarter of the established fee.

9. As against an opposite party the fees may be considered costs of the suit, but not so as between a Pleader and his own client. A Pleader shall be left to remedy by regular suit against his own client. In the Civil Courts of lower grade than Assistants, Vakil's fees shall not in any case be treated as costs of the suit.

10. The above rules shall not prevent an express agreement being entered into between Pleader and client for either a larger or smaller sum than the established fee, but no excess over the established fee, shall be levied as costs of the suit.

11. Any party may engage two or more Pleaders to conduct his suit or defence, but the party found liable in costs shall not be answerable for more than the established fee of one Pleader on behalf of the other party.

12. It shall be competent to a party at any time to withdraw the authority vested in a Pleader to act in his behalf on giving the Court notice in writing to that effect, but it shall not be competent to a Pleader to withdraw from acting on behalf of his client without the consent or the special permission of the Court.

13. If a Pleader is unable to attend the Court in consequence of indisposition or other necessary cause, he shall notify the same to the Court in writing, in which case proceeding in the suit shall be stayed for such time as the Court deems reasonable to enable the party to transfer by endorsement or otherwise power-of-attorney (either temporarily or until the suit is terminated) to another Pleader, and any Pleader absenting himself without written notice as above prescribed may be punished by fine not exceeding Rs. 100 to be adjudged by the officers designated in Rule 4.

14. In case of the resignation, dismissal or death of a Pleader proceedings in the suit shall in like manner be stayed.

15. It shall be lawful for a Pleader (approved by the Political Agent for that purpose) to act on a general Vakalatnama on behalf of jurisdictional Chiefs, provided a duplicate be deposited. In all other cases the Vakalatnama must be for the particular case, and General Vakalatnamas will not be recognised.

16. These Rules shall take effect from the date of publication.

the punctual payment by them of tribute and other Government dues: the following Rules have been made with the consent, approval and sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council, and are hereby promulgated and shall come into force on and from the 1st September, 1897 :—

These rules may be applied to Tálukdárs at present exercising hereditary jurisdiction or whose names are entered in the tribute list or who hold and possess

Estates on political tenure, subject to administrative charges, and to Garásias who can prove their direct descent from the ancestor of any such Tálukdárs and who are still in the possession of their own Garás Estates. Any Tálukdár or Garásia to whose Estate these rules may be applied is hereinafter designated the "Estate-holder."

I. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of a Political Officer, not lower in rank than an Assistant Political Agent or Superintendent, from enquiries made either of his own motion or upon an application from a Tálukdár or Garásia to whom these Rules are applicable, that any such Tálukdár or Garásia is, either personally or in respect of his landed Estate, subject to debts or liabilities of such an amount that there is no reasonable anticipation that they can or will be liquidated in any other way, he shall recommend that these Rules be applied to the said Estate as an encumbered Estate :

Provided that no application from a tribute-paying Tálukdár in the Mahi

Kántha Agency shall make it incumbent on such Political Officer to take any proceeding under this Rule.

II. Such recommendation shall be made in the form of a report, con-

Form, etc., of recommendation.

taining full particulars regarding the Estate and its liabilities and the inability of the Estate-holder to meet the liabilities, to the Political Agent or Political Superintendent, as the case may be.

III. The Political Agent or Political Superintendent, on receiving the Notification of Encumbered Estate brought under management.

report prescribed by the last preceding Rule, and after satisfying himself that there is a reasonable case for applying these Rules

may publicly notify that the said Estate is, from the date of such notification, an encumbered Estate and is placed under management, and will be dealt with in the manner provided by these Rules:

Provided that no management under these Rules shall extend beyond the period of twenty years from the date of the aforesaid notification. At the end of that time, all debts and liabilities, except Government dues, existing at the time of the said notification, and comprised in the scheme of liquidation hereinafter defined, shall be deemed to be fully discharged and satisfied for all intents and purposes whatsoever.

IV. For every Estate so placed under management a Manager shall be appointed, who shall, unless the Political Agent or Political Superintendent in any case otherwise directs, be one of his Assistants. There shall vest in the Manager, for the purpose of administering the said encumbered Estate, all and every right to moveable and immoveable property of or to which the Estate-holder was on the date of the notification possessed or entitled, or which may thereafter, during the continuance of the management, be acquired by or devolve on him.

Appointment of Manager.
Vesting of Estate in Manager.

Provided that the words "moveable property" in this Rule shall not be held to include household goods or wearing apparel required for the personal use of the said Estate-holder or any member of his family. The Estate-holder shall be bound to furnish a list of all moveable property in his possession, and the Manager may require that all surplus ornaments and other property in the possession of the Estate-holder shall be produced before him for disposal.

Definition, "Moveable property."

V. From the date of the aforesaid notification any proceedings pending in any Civil Court in respect to any debt or liability of the Estate-holder shall be stayed: and the operation of all processes, executions and attachments of or by any Civil Court, then in force in respect of the Estate, shall become inoperative: and so long as the Estate remains under management as an encumbered Estate, no fresh proceedings, processes, executions or attachments shall be instituted in or issued from or ordered by any such Court in respect of the Estate-holder's debts and liabilities.

Effect of notification, etc.

VI. From the date of the aforesaid notification the Estate-holder shall become and shall be, so long as the management continues, incompetent—

Incompetency of Estate-holder to contract, etc.

(a) to enter into any contract involving himself or the Estate in pecuniary liability;

- (b) to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate the Estate or any part thereof ;
- (c) to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom.

VII. Within fifteen days from the date of his appointment, the Manager shall publish in such manner as may be most effective a notice in Gujaráti calling upon all persons having claims against the Estate-holder or the Estate to present their claims in writing to the Manager within three months from the date of the publication of the notice. He shall also cause copies of the notice to be posted up in the Thánadár's kacheris in the district in which the Estate is situated.

VIII. Every claim so presented shall be in writing ; shall be explicit ; shall give all the particulars within the claimant's knowledge ; and shall, wherever practicable, be supported by every document upon which the claimant relies. The Manager may refuse to accept documentary evidence not adduced with the statement of claim at the time when it was presented.

IX. If the document relied on be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book to the Manager together with a copy of the entry. The Manager shall mark the book for the purpose of identification, and after examining and comparing the copy with the original and recording a certificate on the copy to that effect, shall return the book to the claimant, and the certified copy shall be kept with the statement of the claim.

X. Every claim other than a claim by Government not filed within the time and in the manner prescribed in Rule VIII shall be deemed to have been duly discharged and shall be forever barred :

Provided that it shall be within the competence of the Manager to allow to any claimant a further period of three months within which he may satisfy the Manager that he had good and sufficient reasons for not filing his claim within the prescribed period.

Every order for allowing an extension of time under this Rule shall be recorded by the Manager in writing and in the form of a proceeding shewing his reasons for allowing the extension.

When the Manager refuses to allow an extension of time under this Rule he shall record his reasons for such refusal in writing.

- XI. When a claim has been duly presented, the Manager shall endorse the statement of claim in his own handwriting and number in its order of priority.

Enquiry into claims.

As soon as the period within which claims may be presented has expired, the Manager shall, without delay, enquire, in their due order so far as may be, or otherwise, as may best suit the public convenience, into all the claims that have been presented against the Estate.

- XII. Subject to the provisions of Rule XX such enquiries shall, in all cases, be conducted in accordance with the following principles :—

Nature of enquiry.

A.—The first point to be ascertained, wherever possible, shall be the amount of the principal sum originally lent by each creditor. The history of each claim should be studied carefully and traced as accurately as possible with a view to obtaining such information.

B.—When the Manager has satisfied himself as to the amount or approximate amount of the principal, he shall allow upon it 6 per cent. simple interest per annum from the date of the loan to the date of the notification issued under Rule III, and the aggregate sum so arrived at, and nothing more, shall be the sum awarded under these rules : provided that in no case shall the amount of the interest awarded be in excess of the principal.

C.—If owing to the deficiency of the income of the Estate, it cannot provide for all debts or cannot pay the interest due at the prescribed rate within the aforesaid period of 20 years, such reduction shall be made (1) in the rate of interest, and (2) in the admitted principal debt, as may be necessary for the proportional liquidation of all debts in their several orders within the said specified period.

D.—If it appear that the debt was incurred by the predecessor in title of the Estate-holder without his concurrence and was not subsequently recognized by the Estate-holder, the claim shall be dismissed :

Provided that in cases in which the Estate-holder is a minor it shall rest with the Political Agent or Superintendent to recognize any debts which may seem to him reasonable.

- XIII. If it appear that the interest already received by any claimant amounts to double the principal, or to the principal plus 6 per cent. compound interest, the claim shall be dismissed.

Dismissal of claim.

- XIV. Subject to the above general principles, the investigation and settlement of all points of detail shall rest with the Manager. The procedure to be followed shall, as nearly as may be convenient, be the procedure followed by Civil Courts in adjudicating upon civil claims. But the Manager will always have considerably more latitude than a Civil Court in dealing with evidence; as, for instance, in going behind bonds for the purpose of ascertaining what sums were really advanced to the Estate-holder.

XV. Subject to the provisions of Rule XX, the Manager will carefully investigate the real merits of every claim and satisfy himself that, where a debt appears to be for value received, value really was received: and that where a debt appears to be for service rendered, the service was rendered and was equivalent to the money value sought to be recovered.

XVI. It shall be within the competence of the Manager to refuse to award interest in any case when he finds that the accounts are not satisfactory. Refusal to award interest if accounts unsatisfactory. When the advance of the principal cannot be satisfactorily traced, a deduction of 50 per cent. is to be made from the amount of the debt as it appears at the time when first there is satisfactory proof of it.

XVII. In absence of a special provision for interest, no interest shall be allowed. No interest payable in absence of express provision.

XVIII. All payments made by the Estate-holder to the claimant, or profits which have been enjoyed by such creditor towards the liquidation of any debt or liability, shall be deducted from the principal sum of the debt or liability, and interest on an amount equal to such deducted sum shall be disallowed from the time of such payment or enjoyment, and the Manager shall be empowered to decide on the amount of profits realized under such enjoyment, after examining such proofs as are presented to him.

XIX. The Manager may, with the previous sanction of the Political Agent or Political Superintendent, appoint, with such rates of remuneration as may be reasonable, a Committee of three native gentlemen of experience, two at least of whom shall not be in the service of the Agency, to assist the Manager in deciding what claims are admissible and to what amount under these Rules. Any expenditure incurred under this Rule shall be deemed to be a part of the expenses of management.

XX. In any case where debts have been awarded against the Estate-holder by the decree of a competent Civil Court before the Estate was declared to be an encumbered, Estate, the Manager shall Recognition of decree of Civil Court.

accept the decree as conclusive proof of the amount therein awarded : Provided that—

I—The Manager shall be empowered, if he has reasonable ground for believing that the amount decreed is more than twice the amount of the original debt, to go behind the decree and enquire into the history of the transaction, with liberty to reduce the amount of the claim to such sum as will represent the original debt, plus interest thereon to an equal amount, minus any sums paid on account, in satisfaction either of principal or interest.

II—The Manager shall be empowered, in preparing the liquidation scheme under Rule XXIII, to reduce the decretal amount in conformity with a general rateable reduction of all debts due by the Estate-holder.

III—The Manager shall likewise be empowered to reduce the rate of interest awarded by the Court which made the decree to the same general rate of interest as is allowed by Rule XII.

XXI.—Debts shall be liquidated in order of priority subject to the following provisos :—

- (a) Debts secured on the Estate shall take precedence of all debts not so secured.
- (b) Decreed debts shall take precedence of bonded and account debts.
- (c) Bonded debts shall take precedence of account debts.

(2) Provided also that all debts shall be liable, in case of necessity, to rateable reduction under Rule XII, clause C.

XXII.—In dealing with all claims against an encumbered Estate, the Manager shall be guided by the Limitation Law, if any, and the Registration Rules, if any, for the time being in force in the Agency or Superintendency Courts, so far as they may be applicable.

XXIII.—As soon as the total amount of debts and liabilities has been finally ascertained, the Manager shall, without delay, prepare and submit to the Political Agent or Political Superintendent a schedule of such debts and liabilities in the order in which it is purposed to pay them off, and a scheme to be called "the Liquidation Scheme," showing the manner in which it is proposed to pay and discharge the said debts and liabilities out of the available revenues of the Estate, after making provision for all expenses incidental to the management, including the payment of Government tribute and other dues, charges for establishment, repairs and improvements, allowance for the maintenance and education of members of the Estateholder's family, and for necessary ceremonial observances.

XXIV.—The Political Agent or Political Superintendent may, thereupon, immediately, or after such further Sanction and publication of Scheme. enquiry as he may direct, sanction the Liquidation Scheme in the form of which he finally approves. And the Political Agent or Superintendent shall thereupon, without delay, publish the Liquidation Scheme in the most effective manner with a notification that he has sanctioned it.

XXV.—The effect of such public notification shall be to extinguish Effect of notification. finally all debts other than Government dues owed by the Estateholder and every claimant shall be entitled to receive under the Liquidation Scheme the amount (if any) finally awarded to him therein, in respect of his claim and nothing more.

Provided, however, that if the condition of the Estate shall at any subsequent period during the management be found sufficiently prosperous to justify payments considerably larger than those awarded in liquidation of debts, nothing in these Rules shall be deemed to debar the Political Agent or Political Superintendent from making a supplementary award on the general principles hereinbefore approved.

XXVI.—The Manager shall be empowered to require any mortgagee
Recovery of mortgaged property. in possession of any part of an encumbered Estate to deliver up his possession to the Manager at the close of the revenue year during which the Estate came under these Rules, and on failure of the mortgagee so to surrender possession, to summarily evict him, or any person obstructing or resisting on his behalf, from the said portion of the encumbered Estate.

Nothing in this Rule shall be held to affect the right of such mortgagee to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount (if any) awarded to him.

XXVII.—If the Estateholder dies after his Estate has been declared to Death of Estateholder. be an encumbered Estate and before the management has terminated, all claims against the estate shall be extinguished except debts due to Government or incurred with the sanction of Government or, where the successor to such Estateholder is a minor, such other debts as the Political Agent or Superintendent may recognize as reasonable.

XXVIII.—An appeal from any act done or order made by the Manager shall lie within six weeks to the Political Agent or Political Superintendent and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

XXIX.—The Manager shall be assisted by a sufficient establishment of auditors, sub-managers and other subordinates, and may depute to them such duties as the Political Agent or Political Superintendent may determine: Provided that all such subordinates as may be entrusted with the collection or custody of money shall furnish adequate security. The Estate-holder or any member of his family shall, with the Political Agent's or Political Superintendent's sanction, be eligible for employment under this Rule.

XXX.—Every Manager appointed under these Rules and every subordinate of such Manager shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code. And every investigation conducted before a Manager in respect to any claim preferred under these Rules, or to any matter connected with such claim, shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

XXXI.—No suit or other proceeding shall be maintained against any person in respect of anything done by him bonâ fide in pursuance of these Rules.

XXXII.—For the purpose of any inquiry under these Rules the Manager may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and may compel them to give evidence, and compel the production of documents and accounts by the same means, and as far as possible in the same manner, as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure.

XXXIII.—Nothing in these rules shall exclude the jurisdiction of the Agency or Superintendency Courts in suits relating to the succession to or to a coparcenary interest in any Estate to which these rules have been applied: Provided that in all such suits the Manager of the said immoveable property shall be made a party to the suit, and that no Court shall entertain any such suit without the sanction of the Political Agent or Political Superintendent.

XXXIV.—During the period of management the Manager shall ordinarily exercise the same powers in respect to the encumbered Estate as the Estate-holder formerly exercised. He shall conduct the management under the control of the Political Agent or Political Superintendent and will in all cases submit for his information and approval such estimates, accounts and other returns as the Political Agent or Superintendent may require.

XXXV.—At any time before he has sanctioned a liquidation scheme under Rule XXIV the Political Agent or Superintendent may publicly notify that on a date fixed by such notification the management shall be relinquished.

On the date so fixed—

- (a) the management shall terminate ;
- (b) the owner of the property under management shall be restored to the possession thereof subject to any leases made ;
- (c) any residue of the rents and profits of the said property shall be paid to him ; and
- (d) the proceedings, processes, executions and attachments stayed and suspended under Rules V and X and the debts and liabilities barred by Rule X shall revive.

In calculating the periods of limitation applicable to suits to recover and enforce debts and liabilities revived under this section, the time during which the management has continued shall be excluded.

Provided that this Rule is not applicable to, and shall not be applied to, any Estate in the Rewa Kantha Agency, and that nothing in this Rule shall render any tribute-paying Estate in the Mahi Kantha Agency liable to any proceedings, processes, execution, or attachments to which it would not otherwise be liable.

XXXVI.—When the debts and liabilities mentioned in the liquidation scheme have been paid and discharged as therein provided, or extinguished under Rule XXVII, the Political Agent or Superintendent, as the case may be, shall, unless the Estate-holder (or his successor in interest) is then a minor, upon a report from the Manager, publish a notice fixing a date for the termination of the management. In cases in which the Estate-holder (or his successor in interest) is a minor the date to be fixed for the termination of the management shall not be earlier than that on which the minority will terminate.

XXXVII.—On the date so fixed the management shall terminate and the Restoration of Estate to Estate- Estate-holder (or his successor in interest) holder. shall be restored to possession and enjoyment of his Estate.

- (c) The Political Agent's Court.

2. The Subordinate Courts are specified in Appendix A. Their jurisherein or such values not exceeding in any case Rs. 5,000 as the Political Agent shall hereafter, with the sanction of Government, from time to time direct.

3. The Courts of the Assistants to the Political Agent are specified in Appendix B. Their original jurisdiction shall be limited to civil suits of all

 They shall also possess an appellate jurisdiction in suits tried by the subordinate Courts up to the limits specified in the said Appendix.

4. Every suit shall be instituted in the Court of the lowest grade com-specified in Appendix A or B to any other Court specified in either Appendix and competent, under Rule 2 or 3, to try it, or to his own Court; provided that the following suits should ordinarily be considered political :—

1. A Girasia is only at liberty to sell his giras to his collaterals or to his Talukdar. The right of pre-emption rests with the former, and before the Talukdar can be the purchaser it must be proved that the collaterals have been given the opportunity to buy the giras.

2. A Girasia is at liberty to mortgage his giras either to his collaterals or to his Talukdar or to other parties such as bankers and merchants.

Property thus mortgaged may, until a final decree of foreclosure or sale has been pronounced, be redeemed by payment of such sum on account of principal, interest, and costs (less such sums received or realized or as ought to have been realized by the mortgagee) as the Court shall deem equitable. In the case of any suit brought by a mortgagee for foreclosure or sale, a co-Girasia of the defendant and failing such co-Girasia, the Talukdar, may redeem the property when the defendant is unable or unwilling to do so, and on the same terms on which such defendant might have redeemed.

The co-Girasia or Talukdar redeeming as aforesaid shall have such rights against the mortgagor Girasia and over the property redeemed as the Court shall deem equitable.

3. Sales and mortgages by Girasias to Jurisdictional Chiefs shall in future be effected by deeds submitted to the Assistant Political Agent, and when approved and sanctioned by the Political Agent, be sent on for registration to the Assistant Political Agent. All sales and mortgages, effected by Girasias to any one in the past by deeds, shall be presented for registration as directed above within one year of the promulgation of these rules, failing which they will be void.

In cases wherein through deception, surprise, oppression or undue influence an unfair advantage appears to have been gained by a party to a sale, mortgage or lease, the Court of the Assistant Political Agent shall have jurisdiction to rectify the terms of the transaction and to adjudicate between the parties to such effect as in the circumstances of the case shall seem equitable.

No cases already decided by the Court shall be re-opened for want of the observance of these rules.

The registration of such documents should be in accordance with the registration rules of this Agency as regards fees, etc., and the registration shall be effected only in the office of the Assistant Political Agent, Pálanpur.

³ No person entering the limits of any of the States, Talukas and Thana Circles of the Mahi Kantha Agency and bringing with him small quantities of opium for immediate personal consumption not exceeding in weight 3 tolas shall be prosecuted under the opium rules in force for importing this opium unless there is clear evidence that the opium is otherwise contraband.

[Agency notification No. 243, dated the 12th January 1907.]

APPENDIX C.

The fees on plaints, petitions of appeal, and applications presented to the Civil Courts of the Mahi Kantha Agency will be computed and levied in accordance with the following rules and regulations :—

- (1) The amount of fee payable in the suits next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows.
- (2) In suits for money (including suits for damages or compensation or arrears of maintenance or arrears of annuities or of other sums payable periodically) according to the amount claimed.
- (3) In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year.
- (4) In suits for moveable property other than money where the subject-matter has a market value according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint.
- (5) In suits—
 - (a) for moveable property where the subject-matter has no market value as for instance in the case of documents relating to title;
 - (b) to enforce the right to share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property;
 - (c) to obtain an injunction;
 - (d) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land; and
 - (e) for accounts

according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal.

- (6) In suits for the possession of land, houses and gardens according to the value of the subject-matter and such value shall be deemed to be—

- (a) where the subject-matter is land— ten times the gross produce arising from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint. The rate of one rupee per bigha or third part of an acre may be considered to be the average annual gross produce, unless the Court considers that the rate is obviously insufficient;

- (b) where the subject-matter is a house or garden according to market value of the house or garden.
- (7) In suits for Vero or Manu Mapu or for the interest of an assignee of land revenue or for Haks arising out of the land, ten times the gross produce.
- (8) In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached, provided that where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest.
- (9) In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the land mortgaged and in suits by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage.
- (10) If the Court sees reason to think that the annual gross produce or the market value of any land, house or garden has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court.
- (11) If, in the result of any such investigation, the Court finds that the gross produce or market value has been wrongfully estimated the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee.

But if the estimation has been insufficient the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the estimate been right.

In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If it is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

- (12) In suits for mesne profits, or for immoveable property and mesne profits, or for an account if the profits or amount decreed are in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the proper fee (payable if the suit had comprised the whole of the profit or amount so decreed) shall have been paid to the Court.

- (13) Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of decree if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable (had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained) is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

- (14) Every question relating to valuation, for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under these rules on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit.

But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the loss of the Fee Fund, it may require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided and the provisions of Rule XI shall apply.

- (15) If an appeal or plaint which has been rejected by the Lower Court is ordered to be received or if a suit is remanded in appeal for a second decision by the Lower Court, which had thrown it out on a preliminary point, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate authorizing him to receive back the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal :

Provided that if in the case of a remand on appeal the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

- (16) Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted and where on the rehearing the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back the fee paid on the application.

But nothing in this section should entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

- (17) When any appeal is presented to a Civil Court, not against the whole of a decision but only against so much thereof as relates to a portion of the subject-matter of the suit, and on the hearing of such appeal the respondent takes an objection to any part of the said decision other than the part appealed against, the Court shall not hear such objection until the respondent shall have paid the additional fee which would have been payable had the appeal comprised the part of the decision so objected to.
- (18) Claims for inheritance, maintenance from or partition of estates which have not hitherto supported the jurisdictional rights of a ruling Chief may, unless the Political Agent thinks fit to withdraw them, be heard as Civil suits.
- (19) No document of any of the kinds specified in the annexed Schedule as chargeable with a fee shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in any of the Courts of the Mahi Kantha Agency, or shall be received or furnished by any Political Officer, unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated in the said schedule as the proper fee for such document.
- (20) All fees referred to in the annexed Schedule shall be collected by stamps.
- (21) No document requiring a stamp under the annexed Schedule shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any of the Mahi Kantha Agency Courts until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

No. 5044, dated the 18th July 1907.—In exercise of the power and jurisdiction delegated by the Government of India, Foreign Department, notification¹ No. 2859-I.A., dated 19th June 1903, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf the Governor in Council is pleased, in supersession of all previous rules on the subject, to prescribe with effect from 1st September 1907 the following Rules for defining the jurisdiction (original and appellate) to be exercised by the Courts of the Mahi Kantha Agency, for regulating the right of appeal, limitation by time and payment of Court-fees by parties in regard to political suits and appeals.

Mahi Kantha Agency
Political Court
Rules, 1907.

I.—COURTS.

The Courts of the Mahi Kantha Agency, which are empowered to hear and dispose of political suits or appeals, are—

- (1) The Assistant Political Agent's Court.
- (2) The Political Agent's Court.

II. JURISDICTION OF COURTS.

2. The following suits should ordinarily be considered political :—
 - (i) Suits to which Chiefs from 1st to 3rd class may be a party.
 - (ii) Cases affecting the interests of the tributary Chiefs of whatever class in regard to sovereign rights, jurisdiction, tribute or allied payments, maintenance to the members of the Chief's family, compensation for injury done by outlaws or highway robbers (Waltar), territory, boundaries, political status or prerogative.

EXPLANATION.—Claims for inheritance or partition of estates in the families of Chiefs, other than those specified in clause 1 above, should ordinarily be heard as civil suits, but this does not include cases which raise the issue of a right to succession to a Chiefship, to which jurisdictionary powers are attached, or an issue of inheritance to, or partition of, any estates in which a jurisdictional Chief or tribute-paying Talukdar has an interest, direct or indirect.

3. The Court of the Assistant Political Agent, Mahi Kantha, possesses an original jurisdiction in political suits of all descriptions without limit as to value.

4. Political suits should be filed in the Court of the Assistant Political Agent, Mahi Kantha (whose jurisdiction for such purpose extends in the whole Agency in which the cause of action arises as the lowest Court competent to try them), but the Political Agent may transfer a suit for trial from the Court of the Assistant Political Agent to his own Court, if considered necessary.

5. If the Assistant Political Agent considers that a suit which has been filed as a political suit should be heard as a civil suit, he shall refer the question to the Political Agent, whose decision, subject to the general or special orders of Government, shall be final. Any party to a suit may also apply to the Political Agent for an order that a political suit shall be heard as a civil suit.

III. APPEALS.

6. An appeal shall lie from the decision of the Assistant Political Agent's Court to the Court of the Political Agent, Mahi Kantha.

7. A further appeal shall lie to the Governor in Council in all political cases.

IV. LIMITATION.

Appeals to the Political Agent, Mahi Kantha.

8. The period for presenting appeals to the Court of the Political Agent from the decisions and orders of the Assistant Political Agent in political cases of which the matter in litigation is of a kind that would ordinarily form the subject of a civil suit or matter for orders by civil courts, shall be limited to sixty days with the same qualifications as to the calculation of the period as apply to ordinary civil cases.

9. Where such questions as sovereignty, jurisdiction, tribute, territory, political status or prerogative are involved, a period of four months will be allowed, with such further extension in any case as in the judgment of the Political Agent may appear just and reasonable.

APPEALS TO GOVERNMENT.

10. The period for presenting appeals to Government from the decisions of the Political Agent in political cases, of which the matter of complaint is either of an administrative or miscellaneous nature or of a kind, which would ordinarily form the subject of a civil suit or matter for orders of Civil Courts as between private individuals, shall be ninety days with the same qualifications as to the calculation of the period as apply to ordinary civil cases. All applications to Government for review of a decision by Government shall be governed by a like limitation.

11. Where such questions as sovereignty, jurisdiction, tribute, territory, political status or prerogative are involved, a period of six months will be allowed for the presentation of an appeal against the decision of the Political Agent, but the appellant must obtain a certificate from the Political Agent within thirty days of receipt of his decision that the case is of a nature which entitles it to this extended period of limitation.

N.B.—It must be borne in mind that while periods to limit the right of appeal in political cases are prescribed so as to bind the parties, the Governor in Council reserves discretion to direct at any time further enquiry in any political case or matter if it appears to him that there are good grounds for doing so.

V. MANNER OF SUBMITTING APPEALS AND REJOINDERS.

12. Appeals to the Governor in Council shall be submitted to the Political Agent in triplicate, accompanied by authenticated copies of the judgments and decrees of both the Lower Courts and by certified translations of any documents on which the suit has been brought or which may be relied on in appeal.

13. The Political Agent shall not call upon the respondent to submit a rejoinder to the appeal until it has been asked for by Government. If Government call for a rejoinder the Political Agent shall cause one copy of the special appeal to be served on the respondent with a notice requiring him to submit in duplicate to the Political Agent any reply he may wish to make within thirty days from the service of such notice: provided that such time may be extended to ninety days in all at the discretion of the Political Agent.

VI. COURT FEES.

14. No Court-fee for the institution or filing of political suits or appeals or applications at any stage of the proceedings connected therewith shall be levied from the parties concerned : Provided that when—

- (a) the suit is brought by any unprivileged person whose claim is rejected or otherwise fails, and
- (b) the Court which passes the final decision considers that such claim was false and vexatious or that there was no reasonable or probable ground for the same :

such Court may order the recovery from such unprivileged person of Court-fees for the institution of the suit at the rates which would be leviable under the scale of the fees for the time being in force under the Agency Civil Court Rules.

3. The import of opium from any place outside the State limits is prohibited except under a pass signed by the Political Agent².

4. The export of any opium to any place outside the State limits is prohibited, except under a pass signed by the Political Agent.

5. The transport from one place to another within the State limits of any quantity of opium exceeding in weight such maximum quantity as the Darbar has undertaken to prescribe is prohibited, except under cover of a permit granted by a duly authorised officer.

6. Except as provided in clauses 7 and 8 (i) no person shall have in his possession any opium other than opium purchased from the Darbar or from a farmer or licensed vendor, (ii) no person, not being a farmer or licensed vendor, shall have in his possession more than such maximum quantity of opium as the Darbar has undertaken to prescribe.

7. Clause 6 does not apply to—

(i) opium in transit covered by a permit under clause 5,

(ii) opium imported according to rule during transit to its destination.

8. There may be granted (a) to any medical practitioner a license for the possession of opium for medical purposes only; (b) to any person a special permit authorising him for a specified period to have in his possession, for private consumption only, a specified quantity of opium in excess of such maximum quantity as the Darbar has undertaken to prescribe.

¹ These Regulations have been adopted by the Chiefs in the jurisdictional States.

² The maximum quantity of licit opium which persons entering the limits of the States, Talukas and Thana Circles can carry with them for personal use is 3 tolas (Government letter No. 2522, dated the 30th March 1906).

9. No person shall sell opium without a license to this effect, provided that any medical practitioner to whom a license has been granted under clause 8 may sell opium in quantities not exceeding in any one transaction such maximum quantity as the Darbar has undertaken to prescribe as medicine or in medical preparations.

10. No person shall sell opium exceeding such maximum quantity as the Darbar has undertaken to prescribe to any person not legally authorised to possess the same.

11. No licensed vendor shall sell more than such maximum quantity as the Darbar has undertaken to prescribe of the inspissated juice of the poppy, or of any preparation or admixture thereof, or of any intoxicating drug prepared from the poppy or more than 5 seers of poppy heads, except to a licensed vendor or a farmer or to a medical practitioner or other person holding a special permit granted by the Darbar under clause 8.

12. Licenses for the sale of opium shall be granted by the Darbar only ; such license shall contain such conditions as the Darbar may think fit to impose. Such conditions may from time to time be varied so as to assimilate them to those in force in British territory.

13. Licenses for sale shall be granted for one year only, or the right to sell opium may be farmed for a period not exceeding five years.

14. Any person who, in contravention of these regulations,

- (a) cultivates the poppy, (b) manufactures opium, (c) possesses opium, (d) transports opium, (e) imports or exports opium, (f) or sells opium, (g) and any person who otherwise contravenes such regulations, shall, on conviction before any officer duly authorised by the Darbar, be punished for each such offence with imprisonment, either simple or rigorous, for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both, and where a fine is imposed, the convicting officer shall direct the offender to be imprisoned in default of payment of the fine for a term which may extend to six months, and such imprisonment shall be either simple or rigorous and in excess of any other imprisonment to which he may have been sentenced.

15. In prosecutions under the preceding clause, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that all opium, for which the accused person is unable to account satisfactorily, is opium in respect of which he has committed an offence under these regulations.

16. In any case in which an offence under clause 14 has been committed :—

- (a) the poppy so cultivated,
- (b) the opium in respect of which any offence under the same clause has been committed,
- (c) where, in the case of an offence under head (d) or (e) of the same clause, the offender is transporting, importing or exporting any opium exceeding the quantity (if any) which he is permitted to transport, import or export, as the case may be, the whole of the opium which he is transporting, exporting or importing,
- (d) where, in the case of an offence under clause (f) of the same clause, the offender has in his possession any opium other than the opium in respect of which the offence has been committed, the whole of such other opium, shall be liable to confiscation.

The vessels, packages and coverings in which any opium liable to confiscation under this clause is found and the other contents (if any) of the vessel or package in which such opium may be concealed, and the animals or the conveyances used in carrying it, shall likewise be liable to confiscation.

17. When the offender is convicted or when the person charged with an offence in respect of any opium is acquitted, but the officer trying the case decides that the opium is liable to confiscation, such confiscation may be ordered by him.

When an offence against these regulations has been committed, but the offender is not known or cannot be found, or when opium not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, any authorised officer may, after due inquiry, order the confiscation of such opium.

18. Opium confiscated under the regulations shall be disposed of in one of the following ways, viz.:—

- (1) It may be retained by the Darbar as part of the opium required for consumption within the State, the duty leviable in respect of which the British Government has agreed to relinquish, and shall then be issued to licensed vendors for sale within the State, the price to be charged by the Darbar to the licensed vendors and the price to be charged by the vendors to the customers being the same as those mentioned respectively in clauses 4 and 5 of the agreement with the British Government; or
- (2) It may be forwarded to the Political Agent or Dépôt with a list of rewards that may be ordered to be awarded under clause 19, and the Political Agent after deducting from the sale proceeds thereof the amount of pass fee due on the quantity of opium and paying off the rewards to the persons concerned, will make over the balance (if any) to the Darbar. All other articles so confiscated shall be disposed of as the Darbar may order.

19. Any authorized officer convicting an offender under clause 14, or ordering the confiscation of opium under clause 16 of these regulations, may grant in such proportions as he thinks fit, to informers and any other persons who have contributed to the seizure of the opium or the conviction of the offender, a reward not exceeding the value of the opium and other articles confiscated in the case plus the amount of any fine imposed. In all cases, except when otherwise expressly ordered by the Darbar concerned, at least one-half the value of the opium and other articles confiscated plus the fine realised shall be distributed as rewards among the informers and captors concerned.

20. Any authorized officer may—

- (a) at any time enter upon, and search, any premises on which he has reason to believe opium liable to confiscation under these regulations is manufactured, kept or concealed, and to seize any such opium and all materials used in the manufacture thereof ;
- (b) detain, search and arrest any person whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of any offence relating to such opium ;
- (c) seize in any open place, or in transit, any opium or other thing which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under clause 16 of these regulations.

21. Any State officer who without reasonable ground of suspicion enters or causes to be entered or searched any building, vessel or place, or vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the property of any person on the pretence of seizing or searching for any opium or other thing liable to confiscation under these regulations, or vexatiously and unnecessarily detains, searches or arrests any person, shall for every such offence be punished with fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

22. Any authorized officer may issue his warrant for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have committed a breach of these regulations, relating to opium, or for the search of any premises in which he has reason to believe opium liable to confiscation is kept or concealed.

23. The subsequent procedure in regard to persons arrested and seizures made shall be in accordance with that generally in force for criminal purposes within the State.

² As explained in Agency circulars of 1877 (Kathiawar Directory, Part II, pages 822 and 828) the Code is to be interpreted with due regard to the privileges of classes in political relation with the British Government, e.g., Chiefs of the first four classes are allowed to be represented by recognised Agents, lands liable to tribute are not saleable in execution of decrees, Political Officers are to exercise the powers of a Collector under the Code in regard to the execution of decrees against the immovable property of a Talukdar, Bhayat, Mulgrassia or other person of the hereditary land-holder class.

Dated 2nd October 1873.— The following rules regarding valuation of suits and institution fees in the jurisdictional Civil Courts of the Kathiawar Political Agency are published in supersession of the circulars and notifications enumerated in a separate notification of this date, and are to take effect from the date of publication :—

I. The amount of fee payable in the suits next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows.

II. In suits for money (including suits for damages or compensation or arrears of maintenance or arrears of annuities or of other sums payable periodically), according to the amount claimed.

III. In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically, according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year.

IV. In suits for moveable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market value, according to such value at the date of representing the plaint.

V. In suits—

- (a) for moveable property where the subject has no market value, as instance in the case of documents relating to title ;
- (b) to enforce the right to share in any property on the ground that it is joint-family property ;
- (c) to obtain an injunction ;
- (d) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land ; and
- (e) for accounts—

according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal.

VI. In suits for the possession of land, houses and gardens, according to the value of the subject-matter ; and such value shall be deemed to be—

- (a) where the subject-matter is land—ten times the gross produce arising from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint. The rate of one rupee per bigha or third part of an acre may be considered to be the average annual gross produce, unless the Court considers that the rate is obviously insufficient ;
- (b) where the subject-matter is a house or garden, according to the market value of the house or garden.

VII. In suits for vero or manu mapu or for the interest of an assignee of land revenue or for haks arising out of the land, ten times the gross produce.

VIII. In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue, according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached :

Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest.

IX. In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the land mortgaged, and in suits by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage, according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage.

X. If the Court sees reason to think that the annual gross produce or the market value of any land, house or garden has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court.

XI. If, in the result of any such investigation, the Court finds that the gross produce or market value has been wrongfully estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee.

But if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the estimate been right.

In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If it is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

XII. In suits for mesne profits, or for immoveable property and mesne profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the proper fee (payable if the suit had comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed) shall have been paid to the Court.

XIII. Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profit so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable (had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained) is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

XIV. Every question relating to valuation, for the purposes of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under these rules on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit. But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, to the loss of the Fee Fund, it may require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided, and the provisions of Rule XI shall apply.

XV. If an appeal or plaint which has been rejected by the Lower Court is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal for a second decision by the Lower Court, which had thrown it out on a preliminary point, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate authorizing him to receive back the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal :

Provided that, if in the case of a remand on appeal the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

XVI. Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back the fee paid on the application.

But nothing in this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, fully or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

XVII. When any appeal is presented to a Civil Court, not against the whole of a decision, but only against so much thereof as relates to a portion of the subject-matter of the suit, and on the hearing of such appeal the respondent takes an objection to any part of the said decision other than the part appealed against, the Court shall not hear such objection until the respondent shall have paid the additional fee which would have been payable had the appeal comprised the part of the decision so objected to.

Legal Practitioners (Practice and Remuneration) Rules,
1873.

Dated 3rd October 1873.—The following rules for the practice of pleaders in the jurisdictional Civil Courts of the Kathiawar Political Agency are published in supersession of those contained in the circulars and notifications enumerated in a separate notification of this date, and are to take effect as provided in the rules :—

1. A pleader or vakil shall not be allowed to act in any suit or proceeding until he has obtained from the party and filed in the Court a registered power-of-attorney (vakalatnama) according to the form contained in Appendix A appointing him pleader in the cause.

2. If a party engages a pleader to act in his behalf, he shall present him with one rupee as retaining fee, for which the pleader shall grant him a written acknowledgment, specifying the date of payment, and if the said retaining fee be not afforded, the pleader shall demand it, and abstain from all proceeding until it be delivered.

3. If after receiving the retaining fee a pleader shall engage with or act for the other party or refuse or omit to act on behalf of his client, he may be punished by a fine not exceeding Rs. 400 (four hundred) ; or if the matter in litigation be less than Rs. 250, then not exceeding twice the amount of the sum in dispute between the parties.

4. No order shall be passed under this rule except after an investigation in writing, nor by officers of lower degree than Assistant Political Agents in charge of Prants or States ; but the subordinate officers shall forward their proceedings to the Assistant Political Agent, who shall pass order, subject to appeal to the Political Agent's Court.

5. Where the circumstances are of an aggravated nature, the Political Agent will suspend the pleader or withdraw his sanad. No punishment inflicted under these rules shall protect pleaders from civil or criminal prosecution.

6. It shall be incumbent on a pleader, at the time of receiving from his clients any accounts, writings or documents, to give written receipts for them, and to restore them when required, under penalty of fine not exceeding Rs. 100, to be awarded by the officers described in Rule 4. If the circumstances are of an aggravated nature, the Political Agent will suspend the pleader, or withdraw his sanad.

7. Each pleader employed in prosecuting or defending an original suit, or a regular or special appeal, shall be entitled to a percentage on the amount sued for according to the rates specified in Appendix B, as a remuneration for his trouble in acting on behalf of his client, until the decree in the suit is passed, and thereafter until such decree is fulfilled.

If an acknowledgment of the demand is entered, or a suit or appeal withdrawn without being brought to trial, the pleader shall be entitled to only one quarter of the established fee.

19. As against an opposite party, the fees may be considered costs of suits, but not so as between a pleader and his own client. A pleader shall be left to his remedy by regular suit against his own client. In the Civil Courts of lower grade than Deputy Assistant, vakil's fees shall not in any case be treated as costs of the suit.

10. The above rules shall not prevent an express agreement being entered into between pleader and client for either a larger or smaller sum than the established fee; but no excess over the established fee shall be levied as costs of the suit.

11. Any party may engage two or more pleaders to conduct his suit or defence, but the party found liable in cost shall not be answerable for more than the established fee of one pleader on behalf of the other party.

12. It shall be competent to a party at any time to withdraw the authority vested in a pleader to act in his behalf on giving the Court notice in writing to that effect; but it shall not be competent to a pleader to withdraw from acting on behalf of his client without the consent or the special permission of the Court.

13. If a pleader is unable to attend the Court in consequence of indisposition or other necessary cause, he shall notify the same to the Court in writing, in which case proceedings in the suit shall be stayed for such time as the Court deems reasonable, to enable the party to transfer by endorsement or otherwise his power-of-attorney (either temporarily or until the suit is terminated) to another pleader, and any pleader absenting himself without written notice as above prescribed may be punished by fine not exceeding Rs. 100, to be adjudged by the officers designated in Rule 4.

14. In case of the resignation, dismissal or death of a pleader, proceedings in the suit shall in like manner be stayed.

15. It shall be lawful for a pleader (approved by the Political Agent for that purpose) to act on a general vakalatnama on behalf of a Chief of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th class, provided a duplicate be deposited. In all other cases the vakalatnama must be for the particular case, and general vakalatnamas will not be recognized.

16. * *

[Kathiawar Agency Gazette, 1873, p. 256.]

No. 2, dated the 5th January 1874.—The following rules, published for Kathiawar Registra-adoption by the officers of the Agency, take the place of, as they condense and tion Rules, 1874.
amend, the various circulars about registration now in force.

It is hereby notified that if any State of the 1st or 2nd class agrees to adopt these rules within its territory, registrations by its appointed officers will be recognized by the Agency Courts from the date when the Political Agent shall, at the request of such State, publish such agreement in the Kathiawar Agency Gazette, and shall notify that the Registration Offices of such State are opened, and publish a list of the offices and the officials appointed to be Registrars or Sub-Registrars. The Agency Courts will cease to recognize the registrations of such State whenever the Political Agent shall, after due warning caused to be communicated to such State and in his opinion sufficient, publish in the Kathiawar Agency Gazette a notification directing them so to do.

It appears to be commonly supposed that, if a document is registered by the Agency, its purpose is thereupon recognized or confirmed by the Agency. This is a mistake. The Agency does not sanction a mortgage of a Girassia's lands because a registering officer registers the mortgage deed. It is sufficient to direct with reference to Circular No. 14 of 1868 that when a deed of sale or mortgage of land by a Girassia is presented for registration, the registering officer should accept it and report immediately to his official superior, when such orders will be issued as are necessary with reference to the engagement of the Chiefs on the subject.

1. These rules shall be called the Kathiawar Registration Rules. They shall come in force one month after publication.

2. Each Prant shall constitute a Registration District of the Agency. Sub-districts may be formed as the necessity for them is felt.

3. In every district there shall be a Registrar, and in every sub-district a Sub-Registrar.

Within the limits of the Pránts under their respective charges, which shall form their Registration Districts, the Assistant Political Agents shall be ex-officio Registrars, but may delegate to their Deputy Assistants, subject to appeal to the Assistant Political Agents, such of their duties, except the power of hearing appeals, as may seem fit.

4. The documents next hereinafter mentioned shall be registered —

- (1) Instruments of gift of immoveable property.
- (2) Other instruments which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, of the value of Rs. 100 and upwards, to or in immoveable property.
- (3) Instruments which acknowledge the receipt or payment of any consideration on account of the creation, declaration, assignment, limitation or extinction of any such right, title or interest; and
- (4) Leases of immoveable property from year to year, or for any time exceeding one year or reserving a yearly rent.

5. Any of the documents next hereinafter mentioned may be registered :—

- (1) Instruments which purport to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, of a value less than Rs. 100 to or in immoveable property.
- (2) Instruments acknowledging receipt or payment of any consideration on account of the creation, declaration, assignment, limitation, or extinction of any such right, title or interest.

- (3) Leases of immoveable property for any term not exceeding one year.
- (4) Awards relating to immoveable property.
- (5) Instruments which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish any right, title to, or in moveable property.
- (6) Acknowledgments, Agreements, Articles of Partnership, Assignments, Awards, Bills of Exchange, Bills of Sale, Bonds, Composition-deeds, Contracts, Grants, Instruments of Dissolution of Partnership, Instruments of Partition, Powers-of-Attorney, Promissory Notes, Releases, Settlements, Writings of Divorcement, and all other documents not hereinbefore mentioned.

6. The registering officer may, in his discretion, refuse to accept for registration any document in which any interlineation, blank, erasure, or alteration appears, unless the persons executing the document attest them with their signature or initials. If he register such document, he shall, at the time of registering the same, make a note in the register of such blank or alteration.

7. No document relating to immoveable property shall be accepted for registration unless it contains a description of such property sufficient to identify the same.

Houses in towns shall be described as situate on the north or other side of the street to which they front, other houses and lands shall be described by their name, if any, situation, area, and the roads and other properties on which they abut.

If the description is sufficient to identify the property, the document may be registered.

8. No document required by section 4 to be registered, and no document mentioned in section 5, shall be accepted for registration unless presented for that purpose to the proper officer within four months from the date of execution :

Provided that, where there are several persons executing a document at different times, such document may be presented for registration within four months from the date of each execution.

9. If owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident, any document executed in Kathiawar is not presented for registration within the above period, the Registrar, in cases where the delay does not exceed four months, may direct that on payment of a fine not exceeding ten times the proper registration fee, the document shall be registered.

10. Every document mentioned in section 4, and in clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 of section 5, shall be presented for registration in the office of the Registrar within whose district the whole or some portion of the property is situate.

Documents not relating to immoveable property may be presented either before the Registrar, or where a Sub-Registrar shall be so empowered, before the Sub-Registrar.

11. Every document to be registered under these rules, where such registration shall be compulsory or optional, shall be presented at the proper Registration Office by some person executing or claiming under the same, or by his representative or assign.

12. No document shall be registered unless the persons executing such document or their representative or assign or authorized agents, appear before the registering officer within the time allowed for representation.

13. The registering officer shall thereupon—inquire whether or not such document was executed by the persons by whom it purports to have been executed, satisfy himself as to the identity of the persons appearing before him and alleging that they have executed the document, and in the case of any person appearing as representative, assign or agent, satisfy himself of the right of such person so to appear.

14. If all the persons executing the document appear personally before the registering officer and are personally known to him, or if he be otherwise satisfied that they are the persons they represent themselves to be, and if they all or their representatives admit the execution of the document, the registering officer shall register the document.

15. If all or any of the persons by whom the document purports to be executed deny its execution, or if any such person appears to be a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic, or if any person by whom the document purports to be executed is dead, and his representative or assign denies its execution, the registering officer shall refuse to register the document.

16. If any person presenting a document for registration desires the appearance of any person whose presence or testimony is necessary for the registration of such document, the registering officer may, in his discretion, on receipt of the process fee, summon him to appear, and examine him under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

17. A registered document shall operate from the time from which it would have commenced to operate if no registration thereof had been required or made, and not from the time of its registration.

18. All documents, duly registered under these rules, and relating to any property, whether moveable or immoveable, shall take effect against any oral agreement or declaration relating to such property unless where the agreement or declaration has been accompanied or followed by delivery of possession.

19. No document whose registration is compulsory shall affect any immoveable property comprised therein, or be received as evidence of any transaction affecting such property, unless it has been registered in accordance with these rules.

20. Every Registrar shall keep—

- (1) Register of documents relating to immoveable property.
- (2) Record of reasons for refusal to register.
- (3) Miscellaneous register for documents not relating to immoveable property.

1. The day, hour, and place of presentation, and the signature of every person presenting a document for registration, shall be endorsed on every such document at the time of presenting it; a receipt shall be given to the person presenting the same; and every document admitted to registration shall without unnecessary delay be copied in the proper book in proper order and indexed as may be prescribed.

22. On every document admitted to registration there should be endorsed the following particulars:—

- (1) The signature and address of every person admitting the execution of a document.
- (2) That of every person examined in reference to it.
- (3) Any payment of money or delivery of goods made in the presence of the registering officer in reference to the execution of the document, and any admission of receipt of condition, in whole or in part, made in his presence in reference to such execution.

If any person admitting the execution of a document refuses to endorse the same, the registering officer shall nevertheless register it, but shall at the same time endorse a note of such refusal.

23. The registering officer shall affix the date and his signature to all endorsements made under the last preceding section relating to the same document and made in his presence on the same day.

24. When the provisions of these rules have been complied with, the registering officer shall endorse thereon a certificate containing the word "Registered," together with the number and page of the book in which the document has been copied. Such certificate shall be signed, sealed and dated by the registering officer and shall then be admissible for the purpose of proving that the document has been duly registered in manner provided by these rules, and that the facts mentioned in the endorsements referred to in section 22 have occurred as therein mentioned.

The endorsements and certificate referred to in section 22 shall thereupon be copied into the margin of the Register Book.

The registration of the document shall thereupon be deemed complete, and the document shall then be returned to the person who presented it.

25. Every registering officer refusing to register a document shall make an order of refusal and record his reasons in Book (2) and endorse the words "registration refused" on the document; and on application made by any person executing or claiming under the document shall give him a copy of his reasons so recorded.

26. An appeal shall lie from Sub-Registrars to a Registrar.

27. When the Registrar has himself made an order of refusal, any person claiming under the document may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, apply to the Political Agent's Court by petition, in order to establish his right to have the document registered.

28. The petition shall be dealt with as a plaint under the Code of Civil Procedure.

The Court shall fix a day for disposal and shall inquire—

- (1) whether the document has been executed, and
- (2) whether the requirements of the law for the time being in force have been complied with on the part of the petitioner so as to entitle the document to registration.

29. If it finds that the document has been executed and that the said requirements have been complied with, the Court shall order the document to be registered, and if the document be duly presented for registration within thirty days after the making of such order, the registration shall be made as hereinbefore provided.

30. The following table of fees shall apply to the registration of documents and other matters connected with these rules :—

No. 44, dated the 23rd December 1875.—It is hereby notified by order of the Governor in Council that all salt not duly covered by a permit which shall be carried across the frontier line hereinafter described otherwise than by a route prescribed by the Governor in Council, and all salt spontaneously produced within and east of the said line which shall be removed without due permission, will, from the date of this notice, be contraband salt as defined in Bombay Act VII of 1873; and all persons concerned in passing, removing or transporting such salt, or accepting or retaining such salt and all such salt and all vessels, animals and conveyances used or intended to be used in transporting it, and all goods, packages and coverings in or among which it may be placed, will be liable to the penalties set forth in Part VI of the said Act.

2. All salt stored within ten miles of the said frontier line in excess of the quantity bond fide required for local consumption shall, from the date of this notice, be contraband and liable to confiscation, together with all goods, coverings, and packages among or in which it may be placed.

Definition of the Salt Frontier south of the Frontier of Radhanpur.

From the Runn opposite Radhanpur territory the line is to follow a course parallel to the coast of the Runn and at a distance of three miles therefrom, until it reaches the cart-track leading from Sultanpur to Uree; from this point it will proceed straight to the westernmost masonry pillar of the Patri-Bajana boundary; thence it will run due east, until it reaches the boundary of the Viramgam Taluka opposite the village of Gloria, leaving on its north the village sites of Sanlas, Salla, and Upariala, in the Bajana Taluka; it will thence follow the boundary between British territory and Kathiawar, until, after encircling the Dhandhuka pargana, it reaches the Gulf of Cambay at the Sundrai creek.

The following rules of procedure have been approved by His Excellency in Council :—

- I. For the maintenance of the Preventive line in Kathiawar, the Chiefs should be required to admit posts of officers of the Salt Department into such villages and places as the Political Agent may appoint at the instance of the Collector of Salt Revenue, and to assist the Salt Officers to find accommodation in such villages and places in every reasonable way.

- II. The officers of the Salt Department should be permitted to follow and apprehend smugglers in Kathiawar, and to seize suspected salt, and carriages, animals and trappings used in its conveyance, and the contents of any package in which it may be concealed. And it shall be the duty of the officers making such apprehensions and seizures to take the prisoners and property forthwith to the Inspector to whom they are immediately subordinate, who, after such preliminary inquiry as may be necessary (to be in all cases completed within 24 hours), shall forward any prisoners who appear from the information obtained to have committed any offence punishable under this notification to the proper Court and shall release any prisoners, the evidence or reasonable ground of suspicion against whom appears insufficient to justify their transmission to a Court, submitting a report of the case for the orders of his immediate superior. Persons who may have been released from arrest under this rule by Inspectors of the Salt Department shall be liable to re-arrest and trial on application being made to the Political Officer in charge of the prant by the Assistant Collector of the Salt Revenue in charge of the Preventive line.
- III. It shall be the duty of the States concerned to cause their officers to take part in the pursuit and seizure of smugglers, etc., to prevent the storage of salt in contravention of Rule VII, and generally to assist the officers of the Salt Department. In the case of any seizure made by the Chief's officers apart from the officers of the Department, notice should be given to the head local officer of the Department to whom the salt and property seized should be made over, and opportunity should be given for such inquiry as may be necessary to ascertain whether the property seized is liable to confiscation.
- IV. The Salt Department should prosecute all persons accused of smuggling before the Local Court of the Chief or Agency. An appeal to the Political Agent, if he has jurisdiction over the Local Court, against the decision of the Court, whatever it may be, will be open both to the prosecutor and to the accused.
- V. Questions of confiscation of smuggled salt, etc., will be determined by the Collector of Salt Revenue subject to an appeal to Government.

VI. All fines levied, and the proceeds of all confiscations adjudged, shall be at the disposal of the Governor in Council for the purpose mentioned in section 61 of Bombay Act VII of 1873.

VII. The storing of salt in excess of quantities required for local consumption in villages within ten miles of the Preventive line is prohibited as in itself evidence of an intent to smuggle. Officers of the Salt Department may visit Kathiawar villages for the purpose of ascertaining whether any contravention of this prohibition has taken place, and will then be entitled to respect and assistance. Should it appear to an officer of the Salt Department of not lower rank than an Assistant Inspector that salt is so stored, the village patel and all superior authorities in the State shall, on the request of such officer, be bound to make effectual search for such salt and to record the result of such search in a report written at the time and signed by all officials of the State who are present. If such salt is found they shall detain it for adjudication by the Political Officer within whose charge the place where the salt is found may be, who shall, if he considers that the salt found is in excess of the quantity bond fide required for local consumption, pass an order for its summary confiscation together with all goods, packages or coverings in or among which it may be placed.

PART II.

LIMITATION OF SUITS, APPEALS AND APPLICATIONS.

4. Subject to the provisions contained in sections five to twenty-five (inclusive), every suit instituted, appeal presented, and application made after the period of limitation prescribed therefor by the schedule hereto annexed shall be dismissed, although limitation has not been set up as a defence.

Explanation.—A suit is instituted in ordinary cases, when the plaint is presented to the proper officer ; in the case of a pauper, when his application for leave to sue as a pauper is filed ; and in the case of a claim against a company which is being wound up by the Court, when the claimant first sends in his claim to the official liquidator.

Illustrations.

(a) A suit is instituted after the prescribed period of limitation. Limitation is not set up as a defence and judgment is given for the plaintiff. The defendant appeals. The appellate Court must dismiss the suit.

(b) An appeal presented after the prescribed period is admitted and registered. The appeal shall, nevertheless, be dismissed.

5. (1) If the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, appeal or application expires on a day when the Court is closed, the suit, appeal or application may be instituted, presented or made on the day that the Court re-opens.

(2) Any appeal or application for a review of judgment may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed therefor, when the appellant or applicant satisfies the Court that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal or making the application within such period.

6. When, by any special law now or hereafter in force and in its nature applicable to the case, a period of limitation is specially prescribed for any suit, appeal or application, nothing herein contained shall affect or alter the period so prescribed.

7. If a person entitled to institute a suit or make an application be, at the time from which the period of limitation is to be reckoned, a minor, or insane, or an idiot, he may institute the suit or make the application within the same period after the disability has ceased, as would otherwise have been allowed from the time prescribed therefor in the third column of the schedule hereto annexed.

When he is at the time from which the period of limitation is to be reckoned affected by two such disabilities, or when before his disability has ceased he is affected by another disability, he may institute the suit or make the application within the same period, after both disabilities have ceased, as would otherwise have been allowed from the time so prescribed.

When his disability continues up to his death, his legal representative may institute the suit or make the application within the same period after the death as would otherwise have been allowed from the time so prescribed.

When such representative is at the date of the death affected by any such disability, the rules that are contained in the first two paragraphs of this section shall apply.

Nothing in this section applies to suits to enforce rights of pre-emption or shall be deemed to extend for more than three years from the cessation of the disability or the death of the person affected thereby, the period within which any suit must be instituted or application made.

Illustrations.

(a) The right to sue for the hire of a boat accrues to A during his minority. He attains majority four years after such accrual. He may institute his suit at any time within three years from the date of his attaining majority.

(b) A, to whom a right to sue for a legacy has accrued during his minority, attains majority eleven years after such accrual. A has, under the ordinary law, only one year remaining within which to sue. But under this section an extension of two years will be allowed him, making in all a period of three years from the date of his attaining majority within which he may bring his suit.

(c) A right to sue accrues to Z during his minority. After the accrual, but while Z is still a minor, he becomes insane. Time runs against Z from the date when his insanity and minority cease.

(d) A right to sue accrues to X during his minority. X dies before attaining majority and is succeeded by Y, his minor son. Time runs against Y from the date of his attaining majority.

(e) A right to sue for an hereditary office accrues to A, who at the time is insane. Six years after the accrual A recovers his reason. A has six years, under the ordinary law, from the date when his insanity ceased within which to institute a suit. No extension of time will be given him under this section.

(f) A right to sue as landlord to recover possession from a tenant accrues to A, who is an idiot. A dies three years after the accrual, his idiocy continuing up to the date of his death. A's representative in interest has, under the ordinary law, nine years from the date of A's death within which to bring a suit. This section does not extend that time, except where the representative is himself under disability when the representation devolves upon him.

8. When one of several joint-creditors or claimants is under any such Disability of one joint-creditor. disability, and when a discharge can be given without the concurrence of such person, time will run against them all; but where no such discharge can be given, time will not run as against any of them until one of them becomes capable of giving such discharge without the concurrence of the others.

Illustrations.

(a) A incurs a debt to a firm, of which B, C and D are partners. B is insane and C is a minor. D can give a discharge of the debt without the concurrence of B and C. Time runs against B, C and D.

(b) A incurs a debt to a firm, of which E, F and G are partners. E and F are insane, and G is a minor. Time will not run against any of them until either E or F becomes sane, or G attains majority.

Continuous running of time.

9. When once time has begun to run, no subsequent disability to sue stops it :

Provided that where letters of administration to the estate of a creditor have been granted to the debtor, the running of the time prescribed for a suit to recover the debt shall be suspended while the administration continues.

10. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no suit against a person in whom property has become vested in trust for any specific purpose, or against his legal representatives or assigns (not being assigns for valuable consideration) for the purpose, of following in his or their hands such property shall be barred by any length of time.

11. (1) Suits instituted in any of the Courts aforesaid on contracts entered into in a place not subject to the jurisdiction of any of the said Courts are subject to the rules prescribed by this Law.

(2) No foreign rule of limitation shall be a defence to a suit instituted in any of the said Courts on a contract, entered into in any such place as aforesaid, unless the rule has extinguished the contract, and the parties were domiciled in such place during the period prescribed by such rule.

PART III.

COMPUTATION OF PERIOD OF LIMITATION.

12. (1) In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any suit, appeal or application, the day from which such period is to be reckoned shall be excluded.

(2) In computing the period of limitation prescribed for an appeal, an application for leave to appeal as a pauper and an application for a review of judgment, the day on which the judgment complained of was pronounced, and the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the decree, sentence or order appealed against or sought to be reviewed, shall be excluded.

ession by a purchaser at a sale in execution of a decree, the time during which the judgment-debtor has been prosecuting a proceeding to set aside the sale shall be excluded.

17. (1) When a person who would, if he were living, have a right to institute a suit or make an application, dies before the right accrues, the period of limitation shall be computed from the time when there is a legal representative of the deceased capable of instituting or making such suit or application.

(2) When a person against whom, if he were living, a right to institute a suit or make an application would have accrued, dies before the right accrues, the period of limitation shall be computed from the time when there is a legal representative of the deceased against whom the plaintiff may institute or make such suit or application.

(3) Nothing in the former part of this section applies to suits to enforce rights of pre-emption or to suits for the possession of immoveable property or of an hereditary office.

18. When any person having a right to institute a suit or make an application has, by means of fraud, been kept from the knowledge of such right or of the title on which it is founded.

or where any document necessary to establish such right has been fraudulently concealed from him, the time limited for instituting a suit or making an application,

(a) against the person guilty of the fraud or accessory thereto, or,

(b) against any person claiming through him otherwise than in good faith and for a valuable consideration, shall be computed from the time when the fraud first became known to the person injuriously affected thereby, or, in the case of the concealed document, when he first had the means of producing it or compelling its production.

19. (1) If before the expiration of the period prescribed for a suit or application in respect of any property or right, an acknowledgment of liability in respect of such property or right has been made in writing signed by the party against whom such property or right is claimed, or by some person through whom he derives title or liability, a new period of limitation, according to the nature of the original liability, shall be computed from the time when the acknowledgment was so signed.

(2) When the writing containing the acknowledgment is undated, oral evidence may be given of the time when it was signed. But oral evidence of its contents shall not be received.

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this section, an acknowledgment may be sufficient, though it omits to specify the exact nature of the property or right, or avers that the time for payment, delivery, performance or enjoyment has not yet come, or is accompanied by a refusal to pay, deliver, perform, or permit to enjoy, or is coupled with a claim to a set-off, or is addressed to a person other than the person entitled to the property or right.

Explanation 2.—In this section 'signed' means signed either personally or by an agent duly authorized in this behalf.

20. (1) When interest on a debt or legacy is before the expiration of the prescribed period paid as such by the person liable to pay the debt or legacy, or by his agent duly authorized in this behalf,

Effect of payment of interest as such.

or when part of the principal of a debt is, before the expiration of the prescribed period, paid by the debtor or by his agent duly authorized in this behalf,

Effect of part-payment of principal.

a new period of limitation, according to the nature of the original liability shall be computed from the time when the payment was made :

Provided that in the case of part-payment of the principal of a debt, the fact of the payment appears in the handwriting of the person making the same.

(2) Where mortgaged land is in the possession of the mortgagee, the receipt of the produce of such land shall be deemed to be a payment for the purpose of this section.

Effect of receipt of produce of mortgaged land.

21. Nothing in sections 19 and 20 renders one of several joint contractors, partners, executors or mortgagees etc., not chargeable by reason of acknowledgment or payment made by another of them. chargeable by reason only of a written acknowledgment signed, or of a payment made by, or by the agent of, any other or others of them.

22. When, after the institution of a suit, a new plaintiff or defendant is substituted or added, the suit shall, as regards him, be deemed to have been instituted when he was so made a party :

Local Regulations.

Provided also that, when a defendant dies, and the suit is continued against his legal representative, it shall, as regards him, be deemed to have been instituted when it was instituted against the deceased defendant.

23. In the case of a continuing breach of contract and in the case of a continuing wrong independent of contract a fresh period of limitation begins to run, at every moment of the time during which the breach or the wrong, as the case may be, continues.

24. In the case of a suit for compensation for an act which does not give rise to a cause of action unless some specific injury actually results therefrom, the period of limitation shall be computed from the time when the injury results.

Illustrations.

(a) A owns the surface of a field. B owns the subsoil. B digs coal there-out without causing any immediate apparent injury to the surface, but at last the surface subsides. The period of limitation in the case of a suit by A against B runs from the time of the subsidence.

(b) A speaks and publishes of B slanderous words not actionable in themselves without special damage caused thereby. C in consequence refuses to employ B as his clerk. The period of limitation in the case of a suit by B against A for compensation for the slander does not commence till the refusal.

Computation of time mentioned in instruments.

25. All instruments shall, for the purposes of this law, be deemed to be made with reference to the Gregorian calendar.

Illustrations.

(a) A Hindu makes a promissory note bearing a native date only, and payable four months after date. The period of limitation applicable to a suit on the note runs from the expiry of four months after date computed according to the Gregorian calendar.

(b) A Hindu makes a bond, bearing a native date only, for the repayment of money within one year. The period of limitation applicable to a suit on the bond runs from the expiry of one year after date computed according to the Gregorian calendar.

PART IV.

ACQUISITION OF OWNERSHIP BY POSSESSION.

26. (1) Where the access and use of light or air to and for any building have been peaceably enjoyed therewith, as an easement and as of right, without interruption, and for twenty years, and where any way or water-course, or the use of any water, or any other easement (whether affirmative or negative) has been peaceably and openly enjoyed by any person claiming title thereto as an easement and as of right, without interruption and for twenty years, the right to such access and use of light or air, way, water-course, use of water or other easement, shall be absolute and indefeasible.

Acquisition of right to easements.

(2) Each of the said periods of twenty years shall be taken to be a period ending within two years next before the institution of the suit wherein the claim to which such period relates is contested.

Explanation.—Nothing is an interruption within the meaning of this section unless where there is an actual discontinuance of the possession or enjoyment by reason of an obstruction by the act of some person other than the claimant, and unless such obstruction is submitted to or acquiesced in for one year after the claimant has notice thereof, and of the persons making or authorizing the same to be made.

Illustrations.

(a) A suit is brought in 1881 for obstructing a right of way. The defendant admits the obstruction, but denies the right of way. The plaintiff proves that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him, claiming title thereto as an easement, and as of right, without interruption, from 1st January 1860 to 1st January 1880. The plaintiff is entitled to judgment.

(b) In a like suit also brought in 1881 the plaintiff merely proves that he enjoyed the right in manner aforesaid from 1858 to 1878. The suit shall be dismissed, as no exercise of the right by actual user has been proved to have taken place within two years next before the institution of the suit.

(c) In a like suit the plaintiff shows that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him for twenty years. The defendant proves that the plaintiff on one occasion during the twenty years had asked his leave to enjoy the right. The suit shall be dismissed.

27. Provided that, when any land or water upon, over, or from which any easement has been enjoyed or derived has been held under or by virtue of any interest for life or any term of years exceeding three years from the granting thereof, the time of the enjoyment of such easement during the continuance of such interest or term, shall be excluded in the computation of the said last mentioned period of twenty years, in case the claim is, within three years next after the determination of such interest or term, resisted by the person entitled, on such determination, to the said land or water.

Illustration.

A sues for a declaration that he is entitled to a right of way over B's land. A proves that he has enjoyed the right for twenty-five years ; but B shows that during ten of these years C, a Hindu widow, had a life-interest in the land, that on C's death B became entitled to the land, and that within two years after C's death he contested A's claim to the right. The suit must be dismissed, as A, with reference to the provisions of this section, has only proved enjoyment for fifteen years.

28. At the determination of the period hereby limited to any person for instituting a suit for possession of any property, situated within the local jurisdiction of any of the Courts aforesaid, his right to such property shall be extinguished.

Giras Lands (Sale and Mortgage) Rules, 1891.

No. 49, dated the 4th November, 1891.—The following revised rules regarding the sale and mortgage of Giras lands, which have been sanctioned by Government, are published for general information :—

Rules.

1. A Girassia is only at liberty to sell his Giras to his collaterals or to his Talukdar. The right of pre-emption rests with the former, and before the Talukdar can be the purchaser, it must be proved that the collaterals have been given the opportunity to buy the Giras.

2. A Girassia is at liberty to mortgage his Giras either to his collaterals or to his Talukdar or to other parties, such as bankers and merchants.

Property thus mortgaged may, until a final decree of foreclosure or sale has been pronounced, be redeemed by payment of such sum on account of principal, interest and costs, (less such sums received or realized or as ought to have been realized by the mortgagee) as the Court shall deem equitable. In the case of any suit brought by a mortgagee for foreclosure or sale, a co-Girassia of the defendant, and failing such co-Girassia, the Talukdar, may redeem the property when the defendant is unable or unwilling to do so and on the same terms on which such defendant might have redeemed. The co-Girassia or Talukdar redeeming as aforesaid shall have such rights against the mortgagor Girassia and over the property redeemed as the Court shall deem equitable.

3. Sales and mortgages by Girassias to Darbars shall in future be effected by deeds submitted to the Prant Officers, and when approved by them, sent on for registration to the Rajasthanik Court. In case of sales, the applications will be forwarded to the Political Agent for final sanction as hitherto.

4. In cases wherein through deception, surprise, oppression or undue influence an unfair advantage appears to have been gained by a party to a sale, mortgage or lease, the Court shall have jurisdiction to rectify the terms of the transaction, and to adjudicate between the parties to such effect as in the circumstances of the case shall seem equitable.

5. No cases already decided by the Court shall be reopened for want of the observance of these rules.

1. Opium includes also green poppy-heads, preparations or admixtures of opium, and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy.

2. The cultivation of the poppy or the manufacture of opium within the territory of the State is prohibited.

¹ The passage here not reprinted relates to the enforcement of these Regulations by jurisdictional Chiefs, and the consequences of not doing so.

If within twelve months from the expiry of the period prescribed for the submission of the claims the Political Agent has not heard and adjudicated on all claims preferred against the estate, he shall report the fact to the Agent to the Governor, with an explanation of the cause of delay and shall state the time likely to be occupied in disposing of the outstanding claims.

The Political Agent may, with the previous sanction of the Agent to the Governor, appoint a Committee of Indian gentlemen of experience not exceeding three in number, of whom not more than one may be in the service of the Agency, to assist him in deciding the claims that are admissible and the extent to which they are admissible under these rules. The Political Agent may fix such remuneration for each of the members of the aforesaid Committee as may appear reasonable to him. Any expenditure incurred under this rule shall be deemed to be part of the expenses of management.

The Political Agent may at his discretion entrust to the Deputy Assistant Political Agent of the Prant in which the estate is situated such part of an inquiry into a claim as concerns account matters only : provided that both parties shall be informed of the opinion of the Deputy Assistant Political Agent, and the Political Agent shall himself hear and dispose of any objections raised thereto by either party before final orders are passed on the claim.

In the case of claims against the estate which have been awarded by a decree of a competent Court before the estate was declared to be an encumbered estate, the Political Agent shall accept such decree as conclusive proof of the amount therein awarded :

the time being, licensed vendors are being supplied in the adjoining British district.

11B. No licensed vendors in the State shall at any time be permitted to sell opium at a price which is lower than the lowest price at which licensed vendors are, at the time being, authorized to sell it in the adjoining British district.

12. Licenses for the sale of opium shall be granted by the Darbar only ; such license shall contain the following conditions :—That a register shall be kept showing—

- (1) Quantity of opium received from time to time from the State.
- (2) Name and residence of purchaser ;
- (3) Quantity sold ;
- (4) Price charged per tola.

Sales, not exceeding half a tola, to each person made during the course of a day to be entered in a total quantity, without mentioning the names, etc., of the purchaser.

¹12(A) A licensed vendor in Agency jurisdiction shall produce forthwith for inspection, on the demand of any Agency Police Officer above the rank of Jemadar, the register referred to in paragraph 12, as well as the whole quantity of opium in his possession ; and he shall not prevent any Agency Police Officer, of whatever grade, from entering any of his shops at any hour of the day or night.

This rule should apply to the areas within Agency jurisdiction only.

13. Licenses for sale shall be granted by the State for one year only ; or the right to sell opium may be farmed for a period not exceeding five years. All licensed dealers or farmers shall procure their supply of opium from the Darbar only.

14. Any person who in contravention of these regulations (a) cultivates the poppy, (b) manufactures opium, (c) possesses opium, (d) transports opium, (e) imports or exports opium, (f) or sells opium, (g) and any person who otherwise contravenes such regulations, shall, on conviction before any officer duly authorized by the Darbar, be punished for each such offence with imprisonment, either simple or rigorous, for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both ; and where a fine is imposed, the convicting officer shall direct the offender to be imprisoned in default of payment of the fine for term which may extend to six months, and such imprisonment shall be either simple or rigorous, and in excess of any other imprisonment to which he may have been sentenced.

15. In prosecutions under the preceding clause, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that all opium for which the accused person is unable to account satisfactorily is opium in respect of which he has committed an offence under these regulations.

16. In any case in which an offence under clause 14 has been committed—

- (a) the poppy so cultivated,
- (b) the opium in respect of which any offence under the same clause has been committed,
- (c) where in the case of an offence under head (d) or (e) of the same clause the offender is transporting, importing or exporting any opium exceeding the quantity (if any) which he is permitted to transport, import, or export as the case may be, the whole of the opium which he is transporting, exporting or importing,
- (d) where in the case of an offence under clause (f) of the same clause the offender has in his possession any opium other than the opium in respect of which the offence has been committed, the whole of such other opium

shall be liable to confiscation by the Darbar

The vessels, packages and coverings, in which any opium liable to confiscation under this clause is found, and the other contents (if any) of the vessel or package in which such opium may be concealed, and the animals or conveyances used in carrying it, shall likewise be liable to confiscation by the Darbar.

17. When the offender is convicted, or when the person charged with an offence in respect of any opium is acquitted, but the officer of the State trying the case, decides that the opium is liable to confiscation, such confiscation may be ordered by him. When an offence against these regulations has been committed, but the offender is not known, or cannot be found, or when opium not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, any authorized State officer may after due enquiry order the confiscation of such opium.

18. A full report of each case shall be forwarded immediately to the Political Agent, with a list of rewards that may be ordered to be awarded under clause 19, together with two-thirds of the pass fee, if due on confiscated opium. All other articles so confiscated shall be disposed of as the Darbar may order.

19. Any authorized State officer, convicting an offender under clause 13 or ordering the confiscation of opium under clause 16 of these regulations, may grant in such proportion as he thinks fit, to informers and any other persons who have contributed to the seizure of the opium or the conviction of the offender, a reward of not less than one-half the value of the opium inclusive of pass fee confiscated in the case: provided always that the Darbar will in special case give such further money rewards to informers and others as may appear to it desirable.

20. Any authorized State officer¹ may—

- (a) at any time enter upon and search any premises on which he has reason to believe opium liable to confiscation under these regulations is manufactured, kept or concealed, and to seize any such opium and all materials used in the manufacture thereof;
- (b) detain, search and arrest, any person whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of any offence relating to such opium;
- (c) seize in any open place, or in transit, any opium or other thing which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under clause 16 of these regulations.

21. Any State officer who without reasonable grounds of suspicion enters or searches or causes to be entered or searched any building, vessel or place, or vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the property of any person on the pretence of seizing or searching for any opium or other thing liable to confiscation under these regulations, or vexatiously and unnecessarily detains, searches or arrests any person, shall for every such offence be punished with fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

22. Any authorized State officer may issue his warrant for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have committed a breach of these regulations relating to opium or for the search of any premises in which he has reason to believe opium liable to confiscation is kept or concealed within State limits.

23. The subsequent procedure in regard to persons arrested and seizures made shall be in accordance with that generally in force for criminal purposes within the State.

1. Loans by one Ruling Chief to another will not in any way be recognised by the Agency, unless the previous sanction of the Government of India has been obtained. In this connection it is immaterial whether the money to be advanced comes from a Chief's private purse or from his State revenues.
2. Loans between Ruling Chiefs and their feudatories or between feudatories themselves may or may not, according to the circumstances of the case, be recognised by the Agency, and it is therefore expedient to report any such loan to the Agency for approval. No loan to a near relative, feudatory or jaghirdar of one Ruling Chief by the Ruling Chief of another State will be recognised by the Agency, unless it has received the previous sanction of Government, in as much as it is contrary to rule for one State to interfere in the internal affairs of another.

1. When any complaint of one or more of the parties to a dispute relating to the possession or enjoyment of immoveable property situate within his jurisdiction has been brought, by petition either direct or through a subordinate official, before an officer of the Kathiawar Agency of a rank not below that of a Political Agent, such officer may, after hearing, either orally or by

2. Subject to the general appellate and revisional authority of the Agent to the Governor, every such injunction or possessory order passed by a Political Agent shall continue in force and binding on all persons affected unless and until ousted by a decree or order obtained by regular suit in a Court of competent jurisdiction.

3. Any suit instituted by any person bound by any such injunction or possessory order or by any one claiming under such person, shall be dismissed, although limitation has not been set up as a defence, unless it has been instituted within the period of two years* from the date of such injunction or possessory order :

Provided that, where the plaintiff in any such suit is a person of political status, such extension of the said period may be granted by the Political Agent in whose Court such suit is instituted, as he may deem just and reasonable.

Kathiawar Agency
Political Courts
Rules, 1903.

No. 5570, dated the 18th August 1903.—In exercise of the power and jurisdiction delegated by Government of India, Foreign Department, notification¹ No. 2859-I.A., dated the 19th June 1903, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor in Council is pleased, in supersession of all previous Rules on the subject, to prescribe with effect from September 1st, 1903, the following revised Rules for defining the jurisdiction (original and appellate) to be exercised by the Political Courts of the Agency in Kathiawar and for regulating the right of appeal, limitation by time, and payment of Court fees by parties, in regard to political suits and appeals.

I.

COURTS.

The Courts of the Political Agency which are empowered to hear and dispose of political suits or appeals, are—

- (i) The Political Agents' Courts.
- (ii) The Agent to the Governor's Court.

II

JURISDICTION OF COURTS.

2. The following suits should ordinarily be considered Political :—

- (i) Suits to which a Chief of any of the first four classes is a party.¹
- (ii) Cases affecting the interests of the tributary Chiefs, of whatever class, in regard to sovereign rights, jurisdiction, tribute or allied payments, maintenance to members of the Chief's family, compensation for injury done by outlaws or highway robbers (Walthar),² territory, boundaries, political status or prerogative.

Explanation.—Claims for inheritance or partition of Estates in the families of Chiefs below the fourth class should ordinarily be heard as civil suits; but this does not include cases which raise the issue of a right of succession to a Chiefship to which jurisdictionary powers are attached, or an issue of an inheritance to, or partition of, any Estates in which a jurisdictional Chief or tribute-paying Talukdar has an interest direct or indirect.

3. The Courts of the Political Agents possess an original jurisdiction in political suits of all descriptions without limit as to value.

4. Political suits should be filed in the Court of the Political Agent of the Prant in which the cause of action arises as the lowest Court competent to try them, but the Agent to the Governor may transfer a suit for trial from any Political Agent's Court to his own Court or to any other Political Agent's Court.

¹ Appeals from decisions of States of the first four classes in disputes relating to giras between them and their Bhayats and Mulgirasias lie to the Agent to the Governor by whom they are dealt with as political suits. Notification No. 12, dated the 9th March 1900. Kathiawar Agency Gazette, 900, p. 52.

² A summary of the local rules and practice on the subject of Walthar is contained in the Agency notification No. 30, dated the 4th July 1884 (Kathiawar Agency Gazette, 1884, p. 179), the main features of which are :—

- A. The liability of the Kathiawar States to Walthar is regulated by their treaty engagements.
- B. Subject to those engagements, Walthar is claimed for British subjects only—
 - (a) where the state of crime in the district is notorious;
 - (b) where neglect to assist the person plundered is proved;
 - (c) where connivance with, or abetment of, the plunderers by the officials of the Chief can be established.
- C. Political fines can be inflicted on Chiefs for defaults in police arrangements, in such cases as, e.g.,—
 - (a) for default in carrying on tracks of thieves brought to a Talukdar's village,
 - (b) for defective police on occasion of a burglary or robbery or pursuit,
 - (c) for harbouring thieves when it is clearly proved that thieves who have committed robbery in another province came from and returned to a Kathiawar Taluka.

Part or the whole of a fine may be awarded as compensation to the injured party at the discretion of the Political Officer who disposes of the case.

5. If a Political Agent considers that a suit which has been filed as a political suit should be heard as a civil suit, he shall refer the question to the Agent to the Governor whose decision, subject to the general or special orders of Government, shall be final. Any party to a suit may also apply to the Agent to the Governor for an order that a political suit shall be heard as civil suit.

III.

APPEALS.

6. An appeal shall lie from the decision of a Political Agent's Court to the Court of the Agent to the Governor.

7. The Agent to the Governor shall not refer political appeals to the Judicial Assistant for disposal, but should dispose of them as he thinks proper, being at liberty to refer for the report of the Judicial Assistant either the whole case or any point that he may consider to require judicial investigation. The report of the Judicial Assistant on such reference may take the form of a final order, and if countersigned by the Agent to the Governor, will then issue as the Agent to the Governor's order.

8. A further appeal shall lie to the Governor in Council in all political cases.

IV.

LIMITATION.

A.

Appeals to the Agent to the Governor.

9. The period for presenting appeals to the Court of the Agent to the Governor from the decisions and orders of the Political Agents in political cases, of which the matter in litigation is of a kind that would ordinarily form the subject of a civil suit or matter for orders by Civil Courts, shall be limited to sixty days with the same qualifications as to the calculation of the period as apply to ordinary civil cases.

10. Where such questions as sovereignty, jurisdiction, tribute, territory, political status or prerogative are involved, a period of four months will be allowed, with such further extension in any case as, in the judgment of the Agent to the Governor, may appear just and reasonable.

B.

Appeals to Government.

11. The period for presenting appeals to Government from the decisions of the Agent to the Governor in political cases, of which the matter of complaint is either of an administrative or miscellaneous nature, or of a kind which would ordinarily form the subject of a civil suit or matter for orders of Civil Courts as between private individuals, shall be ninety days with the same qualifications as to the calculation of the period as apply to ordinary civil cases. All applications to Government for review of a decision by Government shall be governed by a like limitation.

12. Where such questions as sovereignty, jurisdiction, tribute, territory, political status or prerogative are involved, a period of six months will be allowed for the presentation of an appeal against the decision of the Agent to the Governor, but the appellant must obtain a certificate from the Agent to the Governor within thirty days of receipt of his decision that the case is of a nature which entitles it to this extended period of limitation.

V.

MANNER OF SUBMITTING APPEALS AND REJOINDERS.

13. Appeals to the Governor in Council shall be submitted to the Agent to the Governor in triplicate, accompanied by authenticated copies of the judgments and decrees of both the Lower Courts, and by certified translations of any documents on which the suit has been brought or which may be relied on in appeal.

14. The Agent to the Governor shall not call upon the respondent to submit a rejoinder to the appeal until it has been asked for by Government. If Government call for a rejoinder, the Agent to the Governor shall cause one copy of the special appeal to be served on the respondent with a notice requiring him to submit, in duplicate, to the Agent to the Governor any reply he may wish to make within 30 days from the service of such notice, provided that such time may be extended to 60 days at the discretion of the Agent to the Governor.

VI.

COURT-FEES.

15. No Court-fees for the institution or filing of political suits or appeals or applications at any stage of the proceedings connected therewith shall be levied from the parties concerned :

Provided that when—

- (a) the suit is brought by any unprivileged person whose claim is rejected or otherwise fails, and
- (b) the Court which passes the final decision considers that such claim was false and vexatious, or that there was no reasonable or probable ground for the same :

such Court may order the recovery from such unprivileged person of Court-fees for the institution of the suit at the rates which would be leviable under the scale of the fees for the time being in force under the Agency Civil Court Rules.

No. 6336-A., dated 22nd September 1903.—In exercise of the power and jurisdiction delegated by Government of India, Foreign Department, notification¹ No. 2859-I.A., dated the 19th June 1903, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor in Council is pleased, in supersession of all previous Rules on the subject, to prescribe, with effect from October 1st, 1903, the following revised Rules for defining the civil jurisdiction (original and appellate) to be exercised by the Courts of the Political Agency in Kathiawar, for regulating the right of appeal and the payment of Court-fees by parties, and for ensuring punctuality in the discharge of judicial business. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed applicable to political suits save as may be expressly so ordered by the Governor in Council.

I

The Courts of the Political Agency, whether permanent or temporary, are classed as—

- (1) Subordinate Agency Courts.
- (2) Political Agents' Courts.
- (3) The Agent to the Governor's Court, including the Court of his Judicial Assistant.

II

The Subordinate Courts comprise the Courts of the Thandars and Deputy Assistant Political Agents, and their jurisdiction is limited to suits classed as "Civil" of all descriptions—(i) of the value specified for each Court in Appendix A, subject to such alterations as the Agent to the Governor, with the sanction of Government, shall from time to time direct : (ii) of any value specially referred to them by order of the Agent to the Governor.

(2) The Courts of the Political Agents possess an original jurisdiction in suits of all descriptions without limit as to value.

(3) Every suit shall be instituted in a Court of the lowest grade competent to try it, but the Agent to the Governor may transfer a suit from any Court to his own Court or to any Court subordinate to himself, and in like manner the Judicial Assistant may transfer any suit from any of the subordinate Agency Courts to his own Court or to any other of the subordinate Agency Courts, as classified by Appendix A :

Provided that if during the hearing of any suit it is found that owing to a mistake in valuation or other cause it has been instituted in a Court of a higher grade than required, it shall be within the discretion of such Court to allow the hearing to proceed or at any stage to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court.

(4) Any proceedings pending in any Civil Court of the Agency in respect to any debt or liability of a Talukdar whose estate is attached by the Agent to the Governor on account of its being encumbered shall, on the publication of the order of attachment in the Agency Gazette, be stayed; and the operation of all processes, executions and attachments then in force for, or in respect of, such debts and liabilities shall be suspended; and so long as such attachment continues, no fresh proceedings, processes, executions or attachments shall be instituted in or issued by any such Court in respect of such debts and liabilities.

(5) As no holder or sub-sharer of any estate assessed for Government or Gaekwari tribute is liable for any debt or liability incurred by his predecessor unless he has admitted the claim in writing or unless such debt or liability has received the written sanction of the Agent to the Governor, no Agency Court shall entertain any suit against any such holder or sub-sharer in respect of any such debt or liability not admitted or sanctioned as aforesaid.

(6) Save in the exercise of residuary jurisdiction no Agency Court shall entertain any suit against any holder or sub-sharer of an estate assessed for Government or Gaekwari tribute without the sanction of the Agent to the Governor.

(7) No Agency Court shall, without the sanction of the Agent to the Governor, give any effect whatever to any decree in respect of a pecuniary claim or debt or mortgage passed against any holder or sub-sharer of an estate assessed for Government or Gaekwari tribute after the death of such holder or sub-sharer, unless the said claim, debt or mortgage has been admitted in writing by the successor against whom the decree is sought to be enforced or has received the written sanction of the Agent to the Governor.

(8) If a Political Agent, Deputy Assistant Political Agent or Thandar considers that a suit which has been filed as a civil suit should be heard as a political suit he shall refer the question to the Agent to the Governor, whose decision, subject to the general or special orders of Government, shall be final. Any party to a suit may also apply to the Agent to the Governor for an order that a civil suit shall be heard as a political suit.

III.

An appeal either, on law or fact, lies from the decision of a subordinate Court or of a Political Agent's Court to the Court of the Agent to the Governor; but

(2) if the suit should be of a nature cognizable by a Small Cause Court and of a value not exceeding Rs. 1,000 or if of any higher value with the consent of the parties, decision of the Agent to the Governor's Court shall be final;

(3) if the suit, being of a nature not cognizable by a Small Cause Court, should relate to moveable property, the decision of the Agent to the Governor's Court shall be final if it confirm the decision appealed against :

(4) if the suit should come under the last preceding clause, and the Court of the Agent to the Governor should reverse or modify in some material point the decision appealed against, a further appeal on any of the grounds indicated in section 584 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall lie to the Governor in Council, if the case, as hereinafter provided, is certified to be a fit one for appeal to the Governor in Council : Provided always that the decision of the Agent to the Governor's Court shall be final with the previous consent of the parties to the suit.

(5) In all suits relating to immoveable property or any interest therein a further appeal on any of the grounds indicated in section 584 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall lie to the Governor in Council if the case, as hereinafter provided, is certified to be a fit one for appeal to the Governor in Council.

(6) All appeals presented to the Governor in Council under clauses (4) or (5) of this rule must be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Agent to the Governor or his Judicial Assistant that the case is a fit one for appeal to the Governor in Council.

IV.

All appeals from the decisions of subordinate Courts and the Courts of the Political Agents should be addressed to the Agent to the Governor. The appeals in cases classed as " Civil " will ordinarily be referred by him to his Judicial Assistant for disposal. This order may, at the Agent to the Governor's discretion, be special for each case, or general for any class of cases, provided that he may, if he think fit for special reasons reserve any case for his own hearing.

V.

(1) Save as herein provided all decisions by the Judicial Assistant in appeal in civil cases delegated to him by the Agent to the Governor shall take effect without requiring the confirmation of the Agent to the Governor, and subject to the reservations set forth in Rule III are appealable direct to the Governor in Council.

Provided that if in any case the Judicial Assistant is of opinion that any important question of a political nature is involved he shall submit his judgment or order to the Agent to the Governor in Káthiáwár together with the record of the proceedings for his countersignature before pronouncing the same.

If the Agent to the Governor countersigns the Judicial Assistant's judgment or order, it shall be the judgment or order of the Court. If the Agent to the Governor does not concur with the judgment or order of the Judicial Assistant he shall set it aside and after having the case re-argued before himself, if he shall think it necessary, shall record his own judgment or order which shall then be deemed to be the judgment of the Court.

(2) Appeals to the Governor in Council shall be submitted to the Agent to the Governor in triplicate, accompanied by authenticated copies of the judgments and decrees of both the Lower Courts, and by certified translations of any documents on which the suit has been brought, or which may be relied on in appeal, within 90 days of the decree appealed against, exclusive of the time taken up in obtaining copies.

(3) The Agent to the Governor shall not call upon the respondent to submit a rejoinder to the appeal until it has been asked for by Government. If Government call for a rejoinder, the Agent to the Governor shall cause one copy of the special appeal to be served on the respondent with a notice requiring him to submit, in duplicate, to the Agent to the Governor any reply he may wish to make within 30 days from the service of such notice : Provided that such time may be extended to 60 days at the discretion of the Agent to the Governor.

VI.

In all suits transferred by the Agent to the Governor from any Subordinate or Political Agent's Court to the Court of his Judicial Assistant, for original hearing, a first appeal shall lie to the Agent to the Governor personally.

VII.

Subject to the orders of the Agent to the Governor, it is the duty of the Judicial Assistant to call for and examine returns of civil business in the Subordinate and Political Agent's Courts, according to such forms as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Agent to the Governor with the sanction of the Governor in Council and he is authorised to send for the proceedings in any case for inspection. All irregularities and undue delays that may be discovered should be reported by the Judicial Assistant for the orders of the Agent to the Governor.

(2) The Judicial Assistant is also authorised to send for proceedings in non-appealable cases from the Subordinate Agency Courts for purposes of revision as well as of inspection in the spirit of Chapter XLVI of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) He should further submit an annual report on the state of Judicial business for inclusion in the Agent to the Governor's Administration Report.

Kathiawar Agency
Extradition Rules,
1909.

No. 31, dated the 26th June 1909.—The following revised rules for the extradition of accused persons between Native States and Thana Circles, Civil Stations and Railways, as sanctioned by Government, are hereby republished for information and guidance * * .

I. The procedure authorised by the law for the time being in force in British India for regulating extradition will as far as possible be applied in dealing with applications preferred by the States of Káthiáwár for the surrender of alleged criminals from others.

II. The provisions of the Convention¹ for the surrender of persons accused of certain heinous offences entered into by the States of Káthiáwár and sanctioned by Government Resolution No. 7165, dated the 29th October 1889, are to be followed in all cases to which they apply.

III. For the purposes of these Rules, offences are divided into two classes :—

(i) Those enumerated in the above Convention.

(ii) All other offences under the Indian Penal Code.²

IV. Persons accused of any of the offences under Class (i) are to be surrendered to any State in which they are alleged to have committed the offence upon the Chief Karbhari of that State certifying that a prima facie case has been established against such person before a Judicial officer that State not lower in rank than a Nyayadhish, in which the Chief Karbhari concurs.

No papers of the prima facie case need be sent with the Chief Karbhari's certificate.

² Offences against the Railways, Post Office and Telegraph Acts are dealt with as the offences which they also constitute under the Indian Penal Code. Agency Circular No. 22, dated the 22nd December 1909. Káthiáwár Agency Gazette, 1909, p. 301.

V. An accused person who shall have been arrested under Rule II of the above Convention may be taken away by the Police of the State making the arrest, provided he is foreign to the State in which he was arrested. Should he be a subject of that State, he shall be left in the custody of the Police of that State pending the receipt of the certificate from the Chief Karbhari referred to in the previous rules. In the case of the accused being a subject of His Majesty or an European subject of a foreign Power or an American, the State in whose custody he remains shall report the matter at once to the Assistant Political Agent.

VI. Persons arrested as above shall not be detained longer than one month except at the request of the demanding State and under no circumstances for a longer period than two months.

VII. The provisions of the above Convention are to be followed in extradition to and from Agency Thanas, the Civil Stations and the Railways in Káthiáwár, the certificates of the Agency Thandars being sufficient in the case of Thanas and that of Deputy Assistant Political Agents concerned in the case of the Civil Stations and Railways.

VIII. The offences for which extradition may be demanded by States in Káthiáwár from each other are not confined to those enumerated in the Schedule to Act XV of 1903, but an Assistant Political Agent may exercise his discretion in refusing to support a demand either on account of the trivial character of the offence or on the ground that the demand has been prompted by political motives. An appeal against such refusal must be made within 14 days of the date of the order to the Political Agent whose decision shall be final.

IX. A Native State of Káthiáwár requiring the extradition of a person accused of an offence under class (ii) from another State in Káthiáwár must make a written application to the Assistant Political Agent of the Pránt in which the demanding State is situated. It should be supported by the papers of the primá facie case, provided the State has been invested or possesses the requisite jurisdiction. That officer may, if he thinks proper, refer the case to the Deputy Assistant Political Agent for recording before him the evidence adduced in support of the primá facie case. The Deputy Assistant will submit it with his opinion to the Assistant Political Agent.

X. (a) If the Political Agent to whom the record of the primá facie case has been forwarded is satisfied that the primá facie case has been established, that the demand is not prompted by political motives, that the State has jurisdiction to try the offender, and if the accused is not an European British subject or an European subject of a foreign Power or an American, he shall call upon the State in which the accused happens to be to surrender him to the demanding State. The order should distinctly show—

- (1) that the prima facie case is established to his satisfaction ;
- (2) the nature of the offence ;
- (3) the place of the offence ;
- (4) the name of the accused person whose surrender is demanded ;
- (5) the State or authority to whom the surrender is to be made ;
- (6) the place at which the surrender should be made.

The accused must be surrendered accordingly without protest whether he be a subject of the surrendering State or not. The papers of the prima facie case need not be shown with the order.

(b) If he is an European British subject or an European subject of a foreign Power or an American, the surrender should be made to the Agency and the trial will take place in a competent Agency Court.

XI. Should the accused be residing in a different Prant to that of the demanding State, the Assistant Political Agent will obtain his surrender through the Assistant Political Agent of the Prant of the surrendering State, who will accept the certificate of the former without protest.

XII. The administration of a Native State of Káthiáwár desiring extradition of a person accused of an offence under class (ii) from Agency Thanas, a Civil Station or from Railway limits must make a written application to the Assistant Political Agent in whose charge the State is situated supported by the necessary papers to establish a prima facie case. When the Assistant Political Agent has satisfied himself (either by personal enquiry or on the report of some other Agency officer) that—

- (1) prima facie case has been established,
- (2) the States desiring extradition has jurisdiction to try the case,
- (3) the accused is not an European British subject, or the European subject of a foreign Power, or an American,
- (4) there are no sufficient political reasons to the contrary, he shall make an order for the surrender of the accused person if he is within his jurisdiction, or obtain his surrender under Rule XI.

If the Assistant Political Agent is satisfied that a prima facie case exists but that the accused ought not to be surrendered, he shall record his reasons and either try the case himself or send the papers to the proper Agency Court having jurisdiction, as may be necessary.

XIII. In the case of demands for surrender from Native States of persons accused of offences under class (ii) committed in Agency Thanas, Civil Stations and Railway limits, the prima facie cases should be made out before the Thandars, or Deputy Assistant Political Agent, as the case may be, and submitted to the Prant Officer, who will dispose of the application under Rule X or XI as the case may be.

In preparing prima facie cases a Thandar is not limited to cases within his criminal powers. The surrender, however, should be made to a Magistrate having jurisdiction.

XIV. Any delay in complying with the order or certificate of the Assistant Political Agent should be reported to the Political Agent after the expiration of a month from the date of order or certificate.

XV. It is necessary that delay in submitting applications for extradition should be avoided, and where such delays are not satisfactorily explained, the Agency will be justified in refusing its assistance to procure surrender.

XVI. No prima facie cases are needed in extradition between Agency Thanas, Civil Stations and Railway limits. The procedure in such cases is that laid down in the Criminal Procedure Code.

XVII. Notwithstanding the foregoing rules, an Assistant Political Agent may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct that the accused, whether he be a Native British subject, or a subject of a Native State, be tried in an Agency Court instead of being tried by the State demanding extradition.

XVIII. An appeal against any order under Rules X, XI, XII, XIII, XV, and XVII must be made within 14 days to the Political Agent, whose decision shall be final.

XIX. In all cases made over through the Agency for trial by the Courts of a Native State the Assistant Political Agent should satisfy himself that the accused receives a fair trial, that the punishment inflicted upon him is not excessive, and he should observe the treatment of the accused. If not so satisfied he shall require and enforce, if necessary, the restoration of the prisoner to his custody pending the orders of the Political Agent, which shall be final. The Political Agent may also take similar action in cases which may be brought to his notice. The Native State, to whom the surrender is made, should report the result of trial as soon as the case is disposed of.

XX. A return of all persons made over for trial to Native States shall be submitted by the Prant Officers to the Political Agents every half-year, and by him transmitted to Government. The return shall be in the form Appendix A to these Rules.

XXI. Nothing in these Rules shall affect the procedure for extradition from British India, which is regulated by the Extradition Law and the Rules thereunder.

XXII. Demands for the extradition of Baroda subjects will conform to the Rules specially laid down in Government Resolution No. 5807, dated 18th September 1894, and Government Resolution No. 7490 of 30th November 1894, and applications for the surrender of offenders from other Agencies will be disposed of by the Political Agent in accordance with any rules for the time being in force in regard to such surrenders.

XXIII. Any two or more States desiring to dispense with the intervention of the Agency in the extradition of persons being their own subjects accused of offences under class (ii) should intimate their desire to the Assistant Political Agent with a copy of the agreement embodying the rule under which they are prepared to surrender. On being sanctioned by Government, such rules shall be followed by those States as far as they can be applied, and the Agency will not intervene in cases of extradition between such States.

XXIV. A return of surrenders made under Rules IV and XXIII should be furnished every half-year in the prescribed form (Appendix B) by the demanding States.

XXV. The conveyance and maintenance charges of accused persons should be borne by the authorities making the surrender.

2. They may be fined (to an extent not exceeding $\frac{1}{4}$ of their annual emoluments), suspended or dismissed for misconduct or neglect of duty or for breach of any of the following rules by the Talukdars who appointed them, subject to the approval of the Superintendent, Agency Police, or, for special recorded reasons, by the Superintendent, Agency Police, himself, subject to appeal to the Agent to the Governor.

An appeal against the decision of the Prant Officer fixing the number and remuneration shall lie to the Agent to the Governor.

(2) In the event of any Girasia or Talukdar being held by the Prant Officer, after full enquiry, to be guilty of endeavouring to conceal crime or to induce the Village Police to do so, or of in any way obstructing the course of justice, the offending Talukdar or Girasia may, subject to the confirmation of the order by the Agent to the Governor, be permanently deprived of his rights of nomination of any Village Police in his jurisdiction.

5. The power of granting leave to the Village Police shall be exercised by the Superintendent, Agency Police.

Rule, 1911.

No. 4942, dated the 19th July 1911.—In exercise of the powers and jurisdiction delegated by the Government of India under Foreign Department notification¹ No. 2859-I.A., dated the 19th June 1903, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rule to be observed by the Courts of the Political Agency in Kathiawar :—

(1) No Court of the Political Agency in Kathiawar shall enforce any transaction of the nature of an equitable mortgage which, if recorded in writing, would be compulsorily registerable under the Kathiawar Registration Rules or other rules for the time being in force for the registration of documents in the said Political Agency.

Kathiawar Agency
Encumbered Estates
Rules, 1911.

No. 8390, dated the 1st November 1911.—Whereas it is expedient to provide for the relief of certain indebted Talukdars and Girasias in the province of Kathiawar and at the same², to secure the punctual payment of the Preamble.

Government tribute and dues, and to maintain the existing status of such Talukdars and Girasias, the Governor in Council, in exercise of the powers and jurisdiction delegated by the Government of India by notification in the Foreign Department,¹ No. 2859-I.A., dated the 19th June 1903, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, is pleased to prescribe the following revised rules in supersession of all previous rules on the subject :—

1. These rules apply to any Talukdar at present exercising hereditary jurisdiction or whose name is entered in the tribute list, and to Girasias, who can prove their direct descent from the ancestor of any such Talukdar, and who are still in the possession of their own Giras. No such Talukdar or Girasia shall be liable to arrest under the warrant of any Civil Court.

² Sic. Read "same time."

2. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of a Political Officer, not lower in rank than a Political Agent, upon inquiries made either of his own motion or upon an application from a Talukdar or Girasia, that any such Talukdar or Girasia is, either personally or in respect of his landed estates, subject to debts or liabilities of such an amount that there is no reasonable anticipation that they can or will be liquidated in any other way, he shall recommend that the estate of the said Talukdar or Girasia (hereinafter called the estateholder) be dealt with under these rules as an encumbered estate.

3. Such recommendation shall be made in the form of a report, containing the fullest ascertainable particulars, to the Agent to the Governor.

4. The Agent to the Governor on receiving such report, and after satisfying himself that it is a suitable case for the application of these rules, may, by an order published in the Kathiawar Agency Gazette, notify that the said estate is from the date of such notification an encumbered estate and is placed under management as provided by these rules.

5. No management under these rules shall extend beyond the period of twenty years from the date of the aforesaid notification. At the end of that time, all debts and liabilities (except Government debts) existing at the time of the said notification and comprised in the scheme of liquidation hereinafter defined shall be deemed to be fully discharged and satisfied, for all intents and purposes whatsoever.

6. (1) For every estate so placed under management a Manager shall be appointed, who shall manage the estate under the supervision and subject to the orders of the Political Agent, or the Superintendent, Managed Estates, as the case may be. There shall vest in such Manager for the purpose of administering the said estate all the powers that could be exercised on the date of the said notification by the estateholder and all and every right to movable and immovable property to which the said estateholder was, on the date of the notification, entitled, or which during the continuance of the management may be acquired by him or devolve on him.

(2) The owner of the estate is bound to furnish a list of all movable property in his possession and the Manager shall see that all ornaments and other property in the hands of the family except such as are required for personal use are duly produced before him for disposal :

Provided that for the purposes of clauses (1) and (2) of this rule the words "movable property" shall not be held to include household goods or wearing apparel required for the personal use of the said estateholder or any other member of his family.

(3) In the management of the estate the Manager may be assisted by auditors and other subordinates who shall be entrusted with such duties and powers as the Agent to the Governor may determine :

Provided that all such subordinates as may be entrusted with the collection or custody of money shall furnish adequate security.

(4) The owner of the estate or any member of his family shall, with the sanction of the Agent to the Governor, be eligible for employment under this rule.

(5) During the period of management the Political Agent or the Superintendent, Managed Estates, shall ordinarily exercise the same powers in respect to the estate as the owner exercised at the date of the said notification, and he shall administer the estate, subject to the control of the Agent to the Governor, and shall in all cases submit for his information and approval such estimates, accounts, and other returns as the Agent to the Governor may direct.

7. From the date of the said notification all proceedings pending in any Civil Court in respect of any debt or liability of the said estateholder shall be for ever stayed, and the operation of all processes, executions and attachments issuing from any Civil Court upon the said attached estate shall become ipso facto null and void ; and so long as the estate remains under management as an encumbered estate no fresh proceedings, processes, executions or attachments shall be instituted in or issued by any such Court in respect of the said estateholder's debts and liabilities.

8. (1) From the date of the said notification the owner of such estate or any member of his family shall become and shall remain, so long as the management continues, incompetent, in respect of such estate—

- (a) to enter into any contract involving him in any pecuniary liability ;
- (b) to mortgage, charge, lease, or alienate the property under management or any part thereof ;
- (c) to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom.

And the estate shall not in any way be liable for any of his acts done during such management.

(2) The disability of the estateholders whose estates have been placed under management and the exemption of their estates from the operation of the Civil Courts as described in rule 7 shall extend to property of every description, whether movable or immovable, and shall continue until a notification issues removing such estates from management.

9. It shall be the duty of the Political Agent of the Prant in which the estate is situated to inquire into and adjudicate upon all claims against the estate :

Provided that the Agent to the Governor may in his discretion transfer any claim or claims to any other Political Agent or to an Assistant Political Agent (who shall thereupon be deemed to be a Political Agent for the purposes of such inquiry and adjudication) for disposal under these rules.

10. Within fifteen days from the date of the publication of the said notification, the Political Agent shall publish in the Kathiawar Agency Gazette a notice in Gujarati calling upon all persons having claims against the estateholder or the property under management to submit their claims in writing to him within three months from the date of such publication.

11. (1) Every claim so filed shall be in writing and shall be explicit. It shall give all particulars within the claimant's knowledge and shall wherever practicable be supported by documents upon which the claimant relies.

(2) The Political Agent shall ordinarily decline to accept documentary evidence which is not submitted with the statement of the claim hereinbefore mentioned.

12. If the document be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book before the Political Agent together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The Political Agent shall mark the book for the purpose of identification, and, after examining and comparing the copy with the original and recording a certificate on the copy to that effect, shall return the book to the claimant, and the certified copy shall be kept with the statement of the claim.

13. Every claim (other than a claim for Government debt) not notified to the Political Agent within the time and in the manner prescribed in rule 10 shall be deemed to have been duly discharged and shall be barred for ever :

Provided that it shall be within the competence of the Political Agent to allow to any claimant a further period of three months within which he may satisfy the Political Agent that he had good and sufficient reasons for not filing his claim within the prescribed period. But no order granting an extension of time shall be passed except in writing and in the form of a proceeding showing in the Political Agent's own handwriting his reasons therefor. Similarly when an extension under this rule is refused the Political Agent shall record his reasons in writing.

14. (1) When a claim has been duly made and received, the Political Agent shall endorse such claim in his own handwriting and number it in its order of priority. As soon as the period within which claims may be preferred has expired, the Political Agent shall without delay inquire, in their due order or otherwise as may best suit the public convenience, into all the claims which have been filed against the estateholder and the estate.

(2) If within twelve months from the expiry of the period prescribed for the submission of the claims the Political Agent has not heard and adjudicated on all claims preferred against the estate, he shall report the fact to the Agent to the Governor, with an explanation of the cause of delay and shall state the time likely to be occupied in disposing of the outstanding claims.

15. (1) The Political Agent may, with the previous sanction of the Agent to the Governor, appoint a Committee of Indian gentlemen of experience not exceeding three in number, of whom not more than one may be in the service of the Agency, to assist him in deciding the claims that are admissible and the extent to which they are admissible under these rules. The Political Agent may fix such remuneration for each of the members of the aforesaid Committee as may appear reasonable to him. Any expenditure incurred under this rule shall be deemed to be part of the expenses of management.

(2) The Political Agent may at his discretion entrust to the Deputy Assistant Political Agent of the Prant in which the estate is situated such part of an inquiry into a claim as concerns account matters only: provided that both parties shall be informed of the opinion of the Deputy Assistant Political Agent, and the Political Agent shall himself hear and dispose of any objections raised thereto by either party before final orders are passed on the claim.

16. In the case of claims against the estate which have been awarded by a decree of a competent Court before the estate was declared to be an encumbered estate, the Political Agent shall accept such decree as conclusive proof of the amount therein awarded:

Provided that,

- (i) If the Political Agent has reasonable grounds for believing that the amount decreed is more than twice the original debt or debts, he shall be empowered to go behind the decree and enquire into the history of the transaction with liberty to reduce the amount of the claim to such amount as will represent the original debt plus interest thereon to an amount equal to the original debt, less any sums paid on account in satisfaction either of principal or of interest;

- (i) if the Political Agent has reasonable ground for believing that the decree has been obtained by fraud, he shall be entitled to enquire into the history of the transaction as if no decree had been passed.

17. Subject to the foregoing rule, the Political Agent shall enquire into all claims on the following principles:—

- (a) He shall first ascertain wherever possible the amount of the principal sum originally due to each creditor. The history of each case shall be studied carefully and traced as accurately as possible with a view to obtaining such information.
- (b) When he has satisfied himself as to the actual or approximate amount of the principal, he shall allow upon it simple interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from the date on which the original debt was incurred to the date of the notification referred to in rule 4; and an amount not exceeding the aggregate sum so arrived at shall be awarded under these rules, provided that in no case shall the interest awarded exceed the principal. Interest on all claims inquired into under this rule shall cease from the date of the said notification.
- (c) If a claim is brought against the estate in respect of a debt incurred by a deceased estateholder, the Political Agent shall disallow it unless—
 - (i) the original debt has been contracted with the written consent of the existing estateholder, or
 - (ii) the debt has been admitted in writing by the existing estateholder at any time after his succession to the estate and prior to the application of these rules, or
 - (iii) the Agent to the Governor has approved of the transaction by a written order recording his reasons therefor :

Provided that if during the enquiry it appears to the Political Agent that a claim or a part of a claim, which is inadmissible because it was incurred without the approval of the Agent to the Governor, as required above, is deserving of such approval, he shall report the matter to the Agent to the Governor, and the latter may after such departmental inquiry as he may deem fit, record his reasons in writing and order the claim or any part of it to be allowed as having been incurred in the indisputable interests of the estate or family.

- (d) Should it appear that the interest already received by any claimant has amounted to double the principal, the claim shall be dismissed.
- (e) Subject to the above general principles, the investigation and settlement of all points of detail shall rest with the Political Agent. The procedure to be followed should be, as nearly as conveniently may be, the procedure that is to be followed in the adjudication of civil claims. But the Political Agent will always have considerably more latitude than a Civil Court in dealing with evidence, as, for instance, in going behind bonds to ascertain what the totals really consist of or in inquiry as to the degree of intelligent consent exercised by the estateholder in respect of any transaction.
- (f) Subject to the provisions of rule 16, the Political Agent shall carefully investigate the real merits of every claim and satisfy himself that where a debt appears to be for value received, value was really received, and that where a debt appears to be for service rendered, the service was actually rendered and was equivalent to the money value sought to be recovered.
- (g) It shall be within the competence of the Political Agent to refuse interest where the accounts are not reasonably satisfactory. Where the first principal cannot be satisfactorily traced, a deduction of 50 per cent. should be made from the amount of the debt as it appears when first there is satisfactory proof of it.
- (h) In the absence of a special provision allowing interest, no interest shall be allowed.
- (i) All payments made by the estateholder to any creditor, or profits which have been enjoyed by such creditor, towards the liquidation of any debt or liability, shall be deducted from the principal sum of the said debt or liability, and interest on an amount equal to such deducted sum shall be disallowed from the time of such payment or enjoyment. The Political Agent shall be empowered to decide the amount to be so deducted or disallowed after examining such proofs as are presented to him.
- (j) In dealing with all claims against an estate, the Political Agent shall, subject to para. (e) above, be guided by the Limitation Law and Registration Rules for the time being in force in the Agency Courts.

18. As soon as the total amount of debts and liabilities has been fully ascertained, the Political Agent shall without delay prepare and submit to the Agent to the Governor a schedule of such debts and liabilities in the order in which it is proposed to pay them off. He shall also, together with the schedule, submit a scheme to be called the liquidation scheme showing the manner in which it is proposed to pay and discharge the said debts and liabilities out of the available revenues of the estate, after making provision for all expenses incidental to the management including the payment of Government dues, charges for establishment, repairs and improvements, and allowances for the maintenance and education of members of the estateholder's family and for necessary ceremonial observances.

19. Debts shall be liquidated in order of priority, after satisfying Government preferential claims and subject to the following provisions:—

- (a) wages due for services rendered by any labourer, artisan, domestic, or other servant, shall take precedence over all other debts ;
- (b) debts secured on the estate shall take precedence over all debts not so secured ;
- (c) decreed debts shall take precedence over bonded and account debts :
- (d) bonded debts shall take precedence over account debts ;

Provided also that if it appears that the estimated revenues of the estate will not suffice for the payment of all claims allowed under these rules with or without interest within the aforesaid period of twenty years, such reduction shall be made (1) in the rate of interest and (2) in the ascertained principal debt in every case (including awards in respect of decreed debts) as may be necessary for the proportional liquidation of all debts in their several orders within the said period. Nothing in the above rules shall apply to the recovery of Government debts.

20. The Agent to the Governor shall consider any representation which any person dissatisfied with the liquidation scheme of the Political Agent may submit to him within six weeks of the date of the submission of such scheme by the Political Agent ; and thereupon, or after such further inquiry as he may direct, he may sanction the liquidation scheme in the form which he finally approves. On sanctioning such scheme he shall, without delay, notify it with such sanction in the Káthiáwár Agency Gazette.

21. The effect of the publication of the notification referred to in rule 20 shall be to extinguish finally all debts (other than Government debts) due from the estate to any persons whatsoever :

Provided that any creditor whose name is entered in the liquidation scheme shall be entitled to receive the amount finally awarded to him therein in respect of such debt and nothing more :

Provided further that if the condition of the estate shall, at any subsequent period during the management, be found sufficiently prosperous to justify payments considerably larger than those awarded in the liquidation scheme nothing in these rules shall be deemed to debar the Agent to the Governor from making a supplementary award on the general principles hereinbefore approved.

22. The Political Agent shall be empowered to require any mortgagee in possession of any part of the estate to deliver up possession to the Manager at the close of the revenue year during which the estate came under these rules, and, on failure of the mortgagee so to surrender possession, the Political Agent may summarily order his eviction or that of any person obstructing or resisting on his behalf. Nothing in this rule shall be held to affect the rights of such mortgagee to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount (if any) awarded to him.

23. (1) An appeal from any order passed or any act done by a Political Agent in respect of an inquiry under these rules or from any order passed by a Political Agent or the Superintendent, Managed Estates, as the case may be, in respect of administration of an estate under these rules, shall lie within six weeks to the Agent to the Governor, and the order passed by the Agent to the Governor on such appeal shall be final.

(2) Such appeal may be referred by the Agent to the Governor to his Judicial Assistant either for the determination of a particular question or for final decision. And if the Judicial Assistant, after hearing the parties appearing before him, considers that the appeal has been filed without any sound foundation of law or fact, the Judicial Assistant may in his discretion award costs of such hearing against the appellant on the scale prescribed for civil appeals.

24. Every Manager appointed under these rules and every subordinate of such Manager shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. And every investigation conducted before a Political Agent in respect of any claim preferred under these rules or of any matter connected with such claim, shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

25. No suit or other proceeding shall be maintained against any person in respect of anything done by him bonâ fide pursuant to these rules.

26. For the purpose of any inquiry under these rules the Political Agent may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and may compel them to give evidence and compel the production of documents and accounts by the same means and as far as possible in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure.

27. Nothing in these rules shall exclude the jurisdiction of the Agency Courts in suits relating to the succession to, or to a co-parcenary interest in any immovable property which has fallen under the operation of these rules :

Provided that in all such suits the manager of the said estate shall be made a party to the suit and that no Court shall entertain any such suit without the sanction of the Agent to the Governor.

28. When the debts and liabilities mentioned in the liquidation scheme have been paid and discharged as therein provided, a report shall be made to the Agent to the Governor, who shall publish in the Káthiáwár Agency Gazette a notice fixing a date for the termination of the management.

29. On the date so fixed the management shall terminate and the owner shall be restored to the possession and enjoyment of the estate.

30. If an estateholder dies after these rules have been applied to his estate and before the management has terminated, all claims against the estate shall be extinguished except :—

(a) Government debts, or

(b) debts which may have received the approval of the Agent to the Governor as described in rule 17 (c) :

Provided that the Agent to the Governor may notwithstanding, after such inquiry as he may think fit, approve retrospectively and allow any claim in respect of a debt incurred in the indisputable interest of the family or estate, as stated in the proviso to rule 17 (c) above.

31. In conformity with the above rules :—

(a) the management shall continue in all respects as if such estateholder were still living ;

(b) any person succeeding to the whole or any portion of the said estate by reason of the death of such estateholder shall, while the management continues, be subject in respect of the property to which he has so succeeded to all the disabilities imposed by rule 8 ;

(c) no Civil Court of the Agency shall during the continuance of the management issue any attachment or other process against any portion of the property under such management for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by any such successor whether before or after he succeeds to such property.

32. No estate shall after the termination of management under these rules be held liable for the fulfilment of any contract, agreement, or renewal bond, the original consideration for which was the payment of any sum or the incurring of any obligation during the period of management for or on behalf of the estateholder or any member of his family, unless such contract, agreement or renewal bond was made by the order, or with the written approval of the Agent to the Governor.

DUTY.

3. There shall be levied and collected at every mill to which this law applies upon all cotton goods produced in such mill, a duty at the rate of $3\frac{1}{2}$ per centum on the value of such goods.

Explanation.—Goods are said to be produced within the meaning of this section when they are issued out of the premises of the mill. But, in the case of any mill in which the goods are chiefly or largely made up and sold otherwise than as piece-goods, the Governor of Bombay in Council may direct that goods shall be reckoned as produced when they are issued out of the weaving section or sections of the mill.

4. (1) The Governor of Bombay in Council may from time to time, by notification in the Kathiawar Agency Gazette, fix, for the purpose of levying the said duties, tariff values of all such goods as aforesaid or of any particular description or descriptions thereof, and alter any tariff value for the time being in force.

(2) Such tariff value shall, for the purposes of this law, be deemed to be the "real value" of the goods to which it applies, but, save as aforesaid, all goods shall be assessed under this law at their real value.

(3) For the purposes of this law, the real value shall be deemed to be—

(a) the wholesale cash price, less trade discount for which goods of the like kind and quality are sold or are capable of being sold at the time and place of production, without any abatement or deduction whatever, except of the amount of the duties payable on the production thereof ;

(b) where such price is not ascertainable, the cost at which goods of the like kind and quality could be delivered at such place, without any abatement or deduction, except as aforesaid.

5. (1) The owner of every mill shall prepare and deliver, or cause to be prepared and delivered, to the Assistant Political Agent each month a return of all the cotton goods produced at his mill during the preceding month ; and shall subscribe a declaration of the truth of such return at the foot thereof.

(2) Unless otherwise prescribed by any rules under this law, every such return shall state for each description of goods the quantity produced during the period to which the return relates and the real value of such goods.

(3) Every such return shall also contain such further information and be in such form and be subject to such conditions as to verification and otherwise as may be prescribed by any rules under this law.

(4) Each return shall be delivered to the Assistant Political Agent or posted to his address within three working days, and at most within ten days, of the period to which it relates ; and the first of such returns shall be made for the month following that in which the law may be introduced, and shall include all goods produced since the commencement of this law.

Explanation.—"Working day" in this sub-section means every day except such as the Political Agent may from time to time declare, by general or special notification in the Kathiawar Agency Gazette, to be a public holiday.

6. (1) The Assistant Political Agent shall assess the duties payable in respect of the period to which the return relates, and, unless the amount thereof is immediately tendered, shall cause a notice, in such form as may be prescribed by any rules under this law, to be served on

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) may be served on the owner of a mill by delivering or tendering to him or his agent at his ordinary place of business a copy of the notice, or, if this cannot be conveniently done, by fixing a copy of the notice on one of the outer doors of the mill.

7. (1) If any duty payable under this law is not paid within the time fixed by any such notice as aforesaid for the payment thereof, the Assistant Political Agent may, in lieu thereof, recover any sum not exceeding double the amount of duty so unpaid, which he shall, in his discretion, think it reasonable to require.

(2) All sums recoverable under sub-section (1) may be recovered by the attachment and sale of any property of the defaulter.

WAREHOUSING.

8. (1) The Political Agent may from time to time license any room or place as a warehouse for the storage of cotton goods, and for the purposes of this law every such room or place shall be deemed to be a warehouse.

(2) There shall be payable in respect of every such warehouse such and the like licensing fees and other payments as may for the time being be payable in British India, with respect to a private warehouse licensed under the Sea Customs Act, 1878.

Provided that the Political Agent may remit the whole or any part of such fees or other payments in respect of any particular warehouse.

9. (1) The owner of any mill may apply for leave to deposit in a warehouse any goods in respect of which duty has become leviable under section 3, but has not yet been assessed under section 6.

Permission to deposit goods in warehouse.

(2) Such application shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Political Agent.

10. When any goods have been deposited in a warehouse, the quantity and particulars thereof shall be specified as so deposited in the return made under section 5 for the period in which the goods were produced, or in a separate return for that same period, and the said goods shall be deducted in the assessment and collection of duty.

Exemption from assessment of goods deposited.

INSPECTION.

(2) Any such officer may at any time, with or without notice to the owner, examine the working records, sale records and accounts of any mill, and take copies of, or extracts from, all or any of the said records or accounts, for the purpose of testing the accuracy of any return, or of informing himself as to any particulars regarding which information is required for the purpose of this law or any rules thereunder.

(3) Any mill-owner may object to submitting to any officer under the rank of an Assistant Political Agent any record or account containing the description or formulæ of any trade process.

But if he objects to the inspection of any record or account by such an officer on the ground of its containing such description or formulæ, he must submit his objection in writing to the officer for transmission to the Assistant Political Agent, and the officer may then and there seal up the record or account pending the orders of the Assistant Political Agent.

12. (1) All such copies and extracts and all other information acquired by any such officer on the inspection of any mill or warehouse shall be regarded as strictly confidential, and shall be deemed to be official secrets.

(2) If any such officer under the rank of an Assistant Political Agent shall disclose to any person other than a superior officer any such official secret as aforesaid without the previous consent in writing of the Political Agent, he shall be guilty of a breach of official trust, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

In Travancore and Cochin there are special arrangements with regard to jurisdiction over European British subjects. In cases of a nature to be dealt with entirely by Magistrates, certain selected Magistrates who are themselves European British subjects and Christians, are allowed to exercise over European British subjects resident in the State the same jurisdiction that Magistrates of the first class, who are European British subjects and Justices of the Peace, exercise over such persons in British India. Appeals in such cases lie to a Court of the State, of which the Judge is a Christian European British subject : and the proceedings are subject to the control of the Resident. Other cases according to their nature are committed by the same Magistrates, empowered as Justices of the Peace, either to the Resident as Court of Session or to the High Court at Madras. Appeals lie from the Resident's decisions to the same High Court.

In Banganapalle and Sandur sentences of death require the sanction of the Governor of Madras in Council.

The only Administered Area in these States is the sanitarium of Raman-drug in Sandur which is leased to the British Government with a cession of criminal jurisdiction over persons other than subjects of the State.

The tribal territory known as the Dera Ghazi Khan Frontier Tract is also under the control of the Punjab Government exercised through the Deputy Commissioner of the Dera Ghazi Khan District. It is bounded by that District on the east and by the Baluchistan Agency on the west, and is inhabited, in the order named from south to north, by the tribes of the Mazaris, Gurchanis, Lagharis, Khosas, Sori Lunds, Bozdars and Kasranis.

In all the States capital sentences passed by the State Courts require confirmation by the political authorities except in Patiala, Jind and Nabha, Bahawalpur and Kapurthala where the Chiefs possess powers of life and death over their own subjects. ³ In Bashahr the Chief has leased the forests of the State to the British Government and has delegated the jurisdiction necessary for their management. ⁴ A similar arrangement exists in Chamba. ⁵

In the Dera Ghazi Khan Frontier Tract British jurisdiction is exercised through the Chiefs and Elders of the tribes so far as circumstances permit.

The only Administered Area in the Punjab States is a small block of land at Kasumpti adjoining Simla, which is leased from the Raja of Keonthal, together with the ground forming the catchment area for the water-supply of Simla.

The various railways are included in the North-Western Division of Railways according to the classification in Volume V.

Agencies.	States.

In addition to the usual jurisdiction, which the political authorities possess over British subjects, Europeans and Americans, and Government servants, there is this further residuary jurisdiction in these States :—

- (a) In Tehri and Benares all sentences of death require confirmation by the Lieutenant-Governor.
- (b) In Tehri certain land-owners, known as the muafidars of Saklana, exercise jurisdiction in their villages in subordination to the Durbar, but subject to the proviso that in certain circumstances (e.g., where the interests of the Raja are involved or where a muafidar is the accused) the Agent to the Governor may transfer cases, both Civil and Criminal, to the Courts of the Kumaon Division for adjudication and, further, has powers of revision where a decree of a muafidar is reversed or modified by the Chief Court of Tehri to which appeals lie from the muafidars' decisions.

The Raja of Tehri has leased certain forests to the British Government with power to take the steps necessary for their conservation which the Raja undertakes to enforce.

The Raja of Tehri has agreed to maintain an "Inner Line," in continuation of that ³ in the Almora, Garhwal, Spiti and Lahul Districts and in the Bashahr State (Punjab) to control communication with the country to the north-east as the Government of India may require.

There are no Administered Areas in these States.

The Cantonment authority may, for good and sufficient reason, refuse to grant a license under these rules, and may, for misconduct and non-compliance with the requirements of these rules on the part of the licensee, or for any other good and sufficient reason, suspend or cancel a license so granted. Such suspension or cancellation shall not entitle the licensee to any refund of fees paid on account of such license.

When a license is so delivered up, the badge supplied to the licensee by the Cantonment authority in accordance with the provisions of rule 13, shall also be surrendered. But on renewal or restoration of the license, the badge, if still serviceable, shall be returned to the licensee free of charge.
